We would like to dedicate Sachem 1978 to our advisors Mr. Donald Deloge, Mrs. Rhonda Stone, and Mrs. Linda Wulle in sincere appreciation of the time, effort, and interest they gave to the class of 1978. Their friendship and trust helped to guide us through these past four years and will continue to do so in the future.

I Have These Moments All Steady And Strong
I'm Feeling So Holy And Humble

the meanings get lost and the teachings get tossed and you don't know what you're going to do next

you wait for the sun
but it never quite comes

A black and white photograph of a plant with dark, pointed leaves against a light, textured background. The plant is positioned on the right side of the frame, with its leaves extending upwards and outwards. The background is a light, mottled grey with some darker spots, giving it a grainy, artistic feel.

some kind of message comes through to you

some kind of message shoots through

SENIOR FOLIO

WAY BACK THEN . . .

On our first day of school way back then,
We didn't think it would ever end.

The year was nineteen sixty-five;
We thought we'd be there for the rest of our lives.

High school seemed so far away,
We never gave a thought to Graduation Day.

As we got older and the time flew past,
Each year was shorter than the last.

In junior high, many kids thought, "Great!
Only six more years till we graduate."

In seventy-four, new freshmen were we,
And many still thought, "Four more years — then we're free!"

But the rest began to worry, "Where will we go?
When high school is over, how will we know

What the future holds for us? What will we do?
I'm not ready to go yet, are you?"

By our senior year, most of us felt the same:
We'd be happy if seventy-eight never came.

We were glad we were making it, but sad, too, you know?
Nobody really wanted to go.

It's really a mixture of happy and sad,
The most confusing emotions we've ever had.

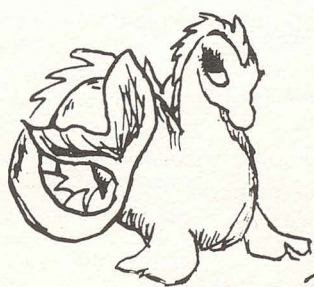

So here it is, nineteen seventy-eight,
And we're getting ready to graduate.

Now we realize how good it's been —
If only we'd known —
Way back then . . .

The Ladder of Time

Open the doors once more
Let me sit back and recall —
Time. It passed so quickly
In front of our eyes
Time. It passed so quickly
in our lives.

Once we climbed the ladder of Innocence. Light shined in our eyes
Telling us in which direction to turn.

We started to climb slowly.
The ole cliché — Reading, Writing Arithmetic, such a task to perform when we were only Standing on the first rung
But we were growing
Oh, all the growing.

Teachers became friends
Friends became remembrances.

Remembering the studies
All night — the relief
The following day.

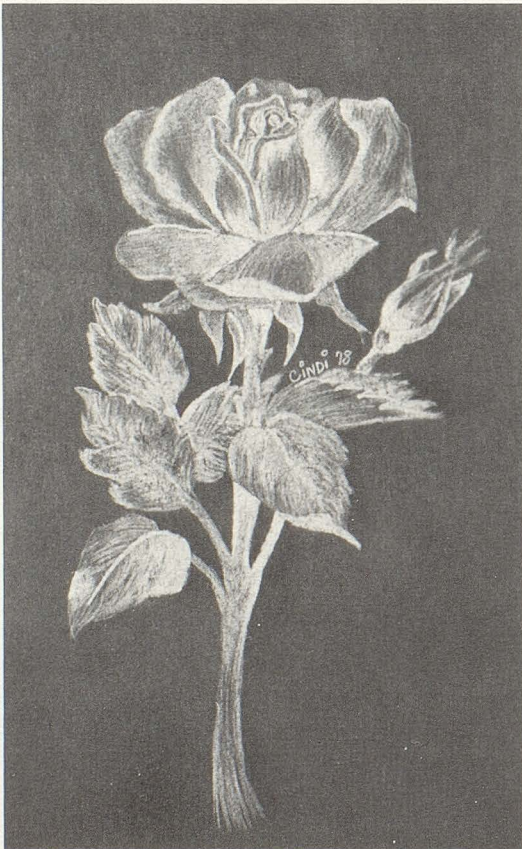

Sneaking out of class
Sneaking out of school
Sneaking out of the reality —
Sooner or later we had to part.

Remember the dances —
Dancing with someone special
Remember the someone special
Who made high school a little more enjoyable.

The rungs became higher and sooner than
We expected we found ourselves on the Top of the ladder — smiling a sad
Smile of the long hard climb.
Friends, you are all so dear, If only
I could thank you — thank you for
The laughs and tears
Making my life balance out more equally.
We've grown — the light is now dim
Heading for the second phase of life.
But the light shines on forever
Forever like time.
We can't relive but we can Look back.

Close the doors.
Innocence is gone, the light is distant,
Friends are few.
High School — you leave me a question —
When will the doors open up again,
Can I make time stand still
Once more?

— Robin J. Miller

FUTURE TOMORROW

Tomorrow I will see you
How long has it been?
Yes, I've thought about you
Can you remember when?
But, yes — we'll talk tomorrow
I've missed you even so —
We just can't be together
Well, that's nothing you don't know
I know you want to tell me
About your life so far
Your dreams and your accomplishments —
and wishes on a star
It's really fine to have a friend
So faithful and so true
but, I never thought in speaking "friend"
I'd be speaking about you
At one time how I loved you!
At one time how I cared —
Then too soon it was over
And I was really scared
To think "I am alone now"
Together not to be
I'd always thought of "us"
Not of "you" and "me"
But —

Tomorrow I will see you
So soon and yet so far
I'm lonely now — but not alone
I wonder how you are?

PORTRAIT (HE KNEW)

by: Kerry Livgren, Steve Walsh (KANSAS)

He has a thousand ideas, you might have heard his name
He lives alone with his vision
Not looking for fortune or fame
Never said too much to speak of
He was off on another plane
The words that he said were a mystery
Nobody's sure he was sane

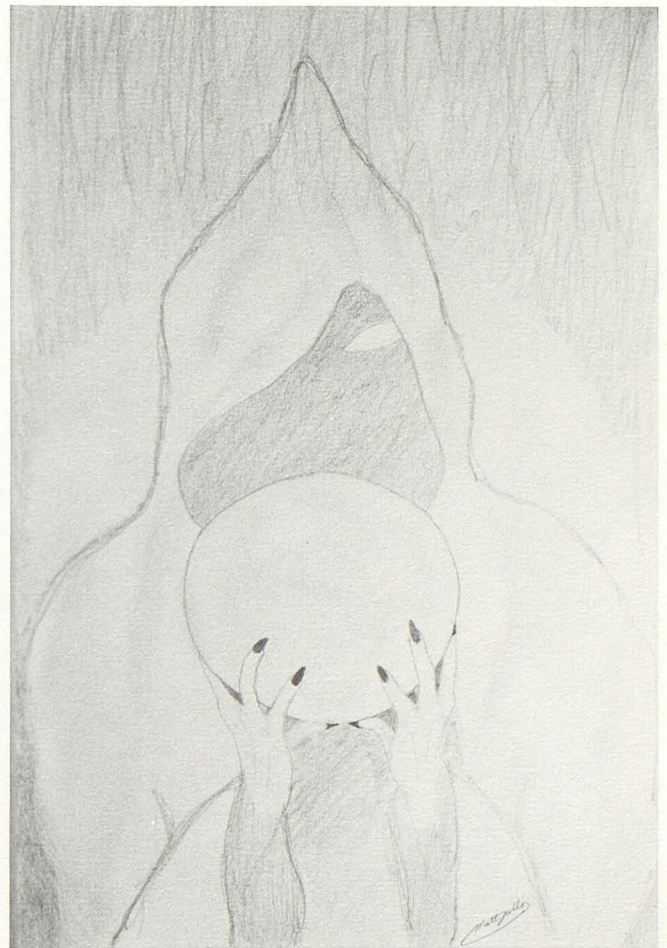

But he knew, he knew more than me or you
No one could see his view, Oh where was he going to?

He was in search of an answer
The nature of what we are
He was trying to do it a new way
He was bright as a star
But nobody understood him
"His numbers are not the way"
He was lost in the deepest enigma
That noone's unraveled today.

But he knew, he knew more than me or you
Noone could see his view, Oh where was he going to?
And he tried, but before he could tell us he died
When he left us the people cried, Oh
where was he going to?

He had a different idea
A glimpse of the master plan
He could see into the future
A true visionary man
But there's something he never told us
It died when he went away
If only he could have been with us
No telling what he might say

But he knew, he knew more than me or you
No one could see his view, Oh where was
He going to?
But he knew, You could tell by the picture
he drew
It was totally something new, Oh
where was he going to?
Where was he going to?

TIME

In many ways
I resent time.

I resent clocks and watches
Ticking away the seconds
Which add up to minutes
Hours
Days
Years
Years that slip by us so swiftly and sneakily,
Like a prowling black cat in the night.

Where are the seasons of yesteryear?
Our first day of school
Walking through crisp, rust-colored leaves
And what has happened to Santa Claus and snowmen?
The child-like restlessness of a warm spring day
And the anxious awaiting of a summertime ice cream truck.

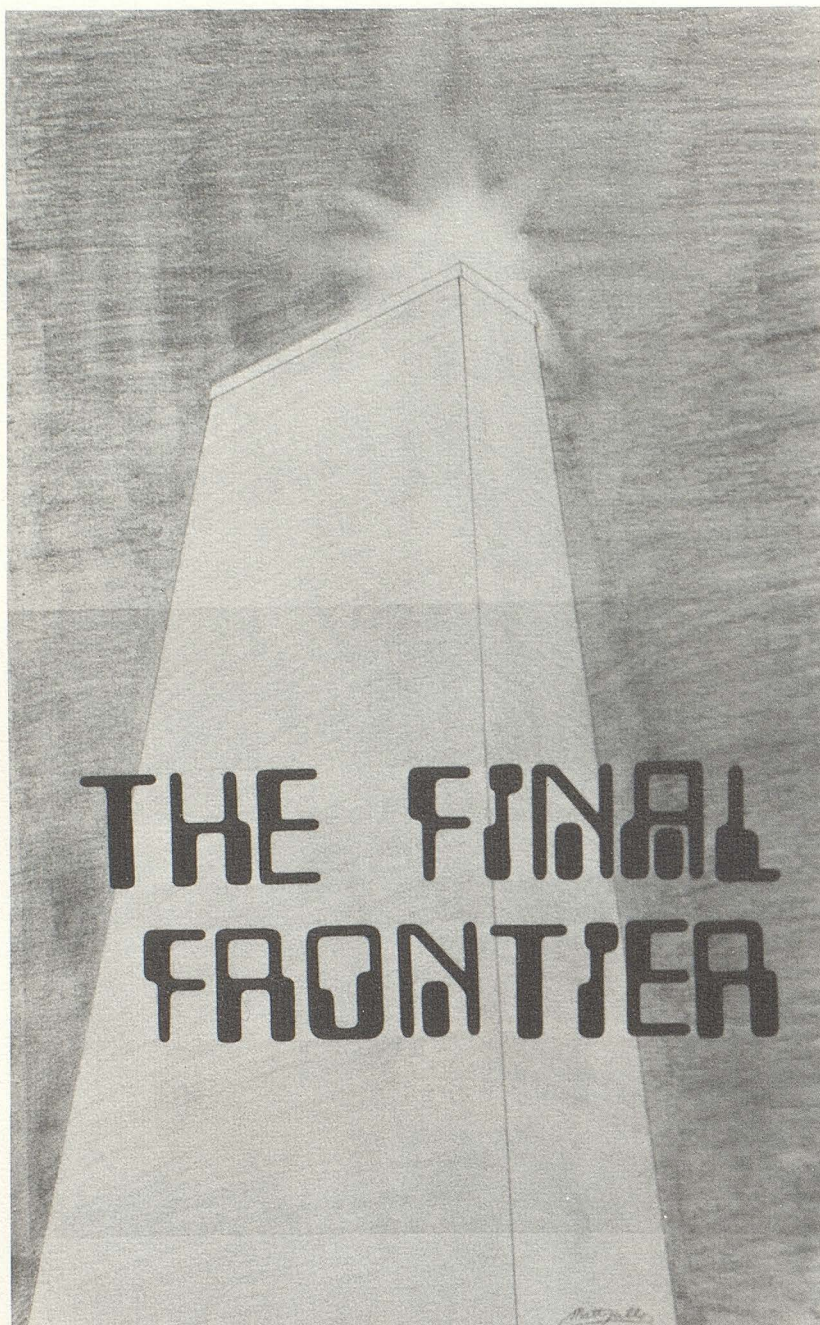

Where have these things gone?
Where are they hiding?
The only clue is our memories
Memories of both good things and bad
But they are just memories in time.

Time.
I resent this thing called time.
It forces to grow old and feeble
And with no sympathy
It just keeps ticking away the seconds of
The minutes of
The years.

But —
Time is a God
Indestructable
Infallable
Immortal
And since we cannot do anything about Time
We must look to the future
Towards other autumns, winters, springs,
Even other ice cream trucks
And grasping every minute of every hour
Of every day
Live it to the fullest.

— Terri Tedeschi

THE FINAL FRONTIER

LOVE LOST?

Finding you was unexpected
 Needing you was, too.
 Wanting you was unintended
 But there was nothing I could do.
 Missing you comes easy though,
 As crying for you does
 But I really can't grieve for a love
 That never really was.

— Michele B. Lombardi '77

The Bridge of Time

The bridge of time.
 Together we stand reminiscing about
 The times before,
 . . . our secrets, fun and sadness
 That bound our friendship.
 But our steps move farther from this time of life.
 Across the bridge of new beginnings,
 of new secrets, of new fun of new sadness.
 The way ahead is like a wooded path
 in a dense forest.
 To see around the bend you must travel towards it.
 The way back is full of golden memories, which can only be recaptured
 by our thoughts . . .
 It was much easier then
 We traveled freely side by side thru meadows of laughter and happiness.
 But the paths ahead must be chosen wisely.
 Will you go my way or will I go yours.
 Will we walk together or share our final moment on the bridge of time.
 The bridge of time.

— Carol Chaplin

FORGET

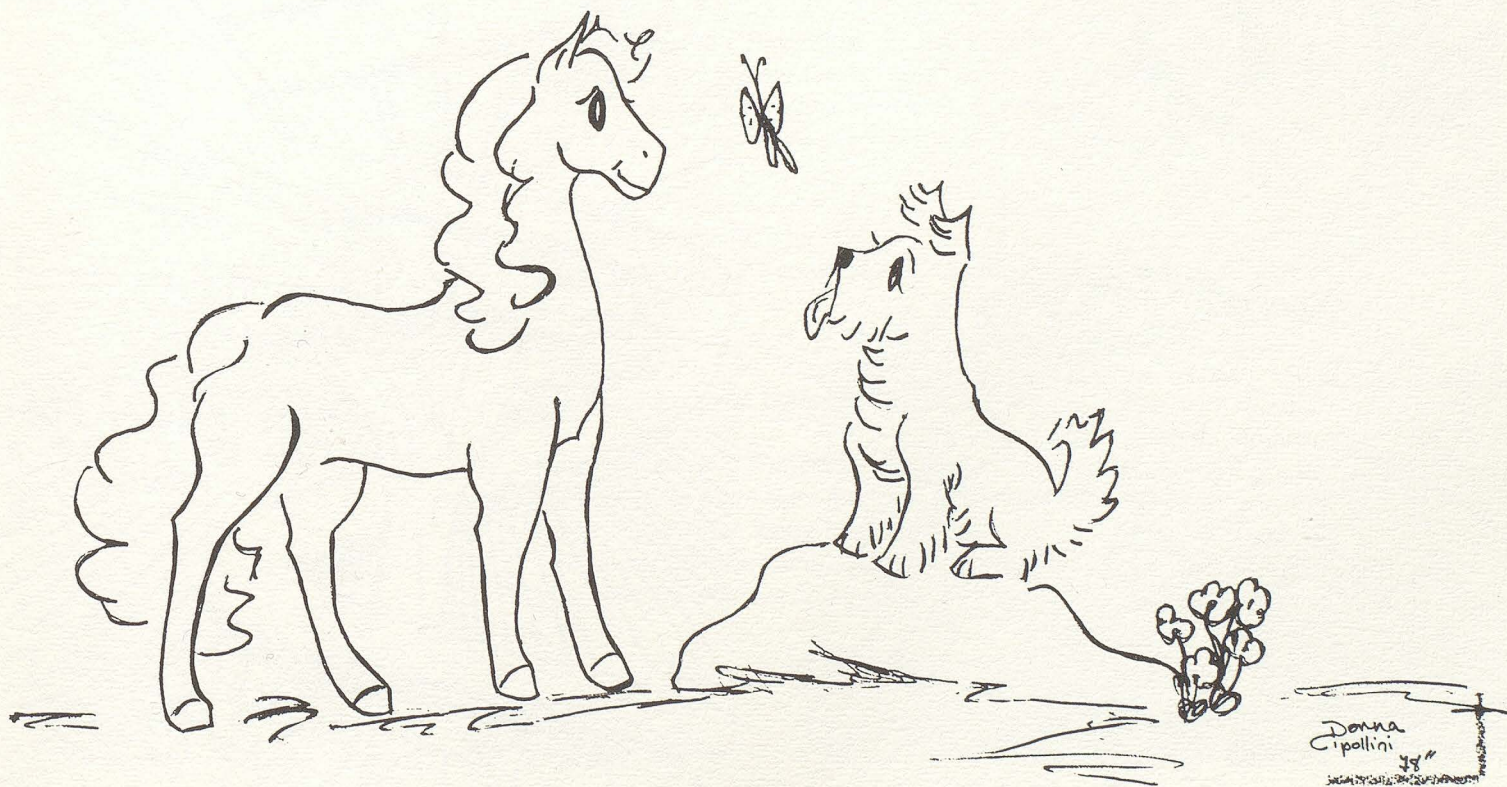

To forget the smile which so often brought reality to my confusion.
 To forget the words which were spoken to comfort me,
 to make me understand.
 To forget the laughter which lit up the rooms we occupied.
 Together
 And filled the empty spaces with love.
 To forget the eyes which sparkled with mischief and sadness
 and child-like dreams.
 To forget the arms which held me
 — but once —
 with security,
 and with hope.
 To forget the dreams which never were.
 And those that nearly were.
 To forget these would be to forget you.
 To forget you
 would be impossible.

— Michele B. Lombardi '77

DREAMS DEAD, DREAMS GONE

Dreams are dying slowly
 just like the setting sun
 and promises are broken
 — except for maybe one that lies somewhere beneath this self
 that's hardened by a lie tries to pull me down once more before it's turn to die

— Michele B. Lombardi —

You have stayed on that stair for one year.
And it's time to climb up one more. You're not even quarter of the way up!! Why this day? The day you were born, and you stayed on the bottom for nine months, before you could climb, you crawled. Those first four steps went slowly, and seemed quite long and exciting, to know you were moving up.

Then you really could climb and those next few were more exciting, for you knew the day you could step up was coming and everybody made a fuss over your victory. There was a celebration. When you got to that point when steps were behind you, but only a few (less than 10) you couldn't wait to get to that one when fifteen were behind you.

You made it. You stayed on that step for only a short while. Why did it go so fast?

Now your friends joined you and climbed a few with you, and they sat on your step for a while —

Wow! More than 10 steps behind you, but look ahead — so many MORE. Sit on the landing for a while, take a break, that was a long climb. Enjoy each day. Share it's joy. Help someone else climb, and let them rest on your landing for there is a long journey ahead. Share your day, the day you climb. With friends and family, get back to that victory, a personal goal. Be thankful you are strong, and can climb and have friends and loved ones to sit on your step.

“— Rozzie II”

I was talking to a friend just the other night.
Something was the matter, he didn't seem quite right.
I took a chance and asked him what was wrong
For I knew it was up to someone to help him be strong.

"Life is a bummer,
too many problems," he said.
There was nothing I could say off the top of my head.

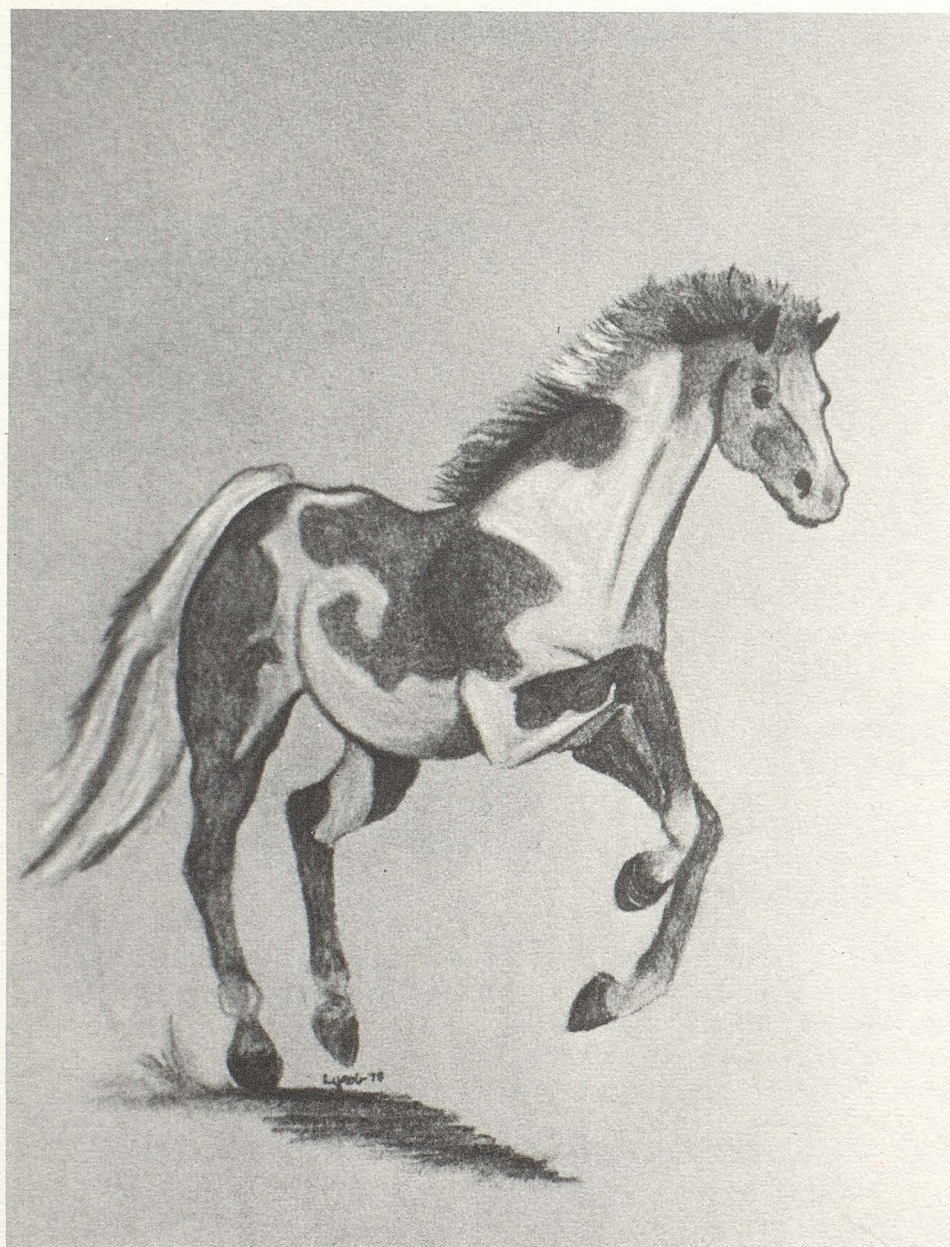

Not sure what to do, I let him continue,
"Heaven is the goal,
'Cause nothing can bother you."

He must be really depressed, wishing to be under the ground.
So, hoping he'd not take me for a pair of rose-colored glasses,
I said, "Life is for living (very profound),
Things can only be good after once being bad.
You can't be happy unless you've been sad."

— D. Hutton

Tonight I discovered that sometimes
I think too hard. I wonder so much
I get confused, not knowing what
I'll do tomorrow — why?
Worry about today!

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1978

Let us begin our journey into the past . . .

Our freshmen year began with the teacher's strike; for the first three days we had total chaos. Monday, however, things settled down to normal. A few weeks later officers for our class were elected. They were as follows:

Kurt Ginter — President
Brian Berns — Vice-President
Jodi Asbell — Treasurer
Peggy Avery — Secretary

We all felt some strain as we tried to adjust to the "grown-up" world at high school. However, we all made the adjustment successfully. Other than these things, our freshman year was uneventful.

Our sophomore year brought about a major change in scheduling. We moved into the rotating schedule, seven classes with six of them meeting each day. This has continued to be the favored type of schedule.

Gerry Ardito, our class President, in attempting to raise money and provide enjoyment for the students of the West Campus, arranged to have a jukebox put in Cafeteria B. Being as popular as it was, sometimes the jukebox became so overloaded with selections that it played until long after the schoolday had ended. Our slate of officers was filled out by:

Anne Johnson — Vice-President
Julie Brink — Secretary
Kurt Ginter — Treasurer

Saturday, December 13, 1975, was the night of our Semi-Formal, "Just You 'n Me". The band was Charisma, and couples danced to the music from 8-12 p.m. The gym was decorated top to bottom and even included a fountain.

June 4, 1976, was the date for our Sophomore Class Picnic. Plans were begun long before the date, and things rolled along smoothly. The large courtyard was unlocked and huge grills, orange drink machines, and tables of "fixin's" were set up. Mounds of hamburgers, hotdogs, and rolls poured in all afternoon. At approximately 6 p.m., our party commenced. Everyone who turned out for the party had a super time. Although attendance was not large, all present joined in for softball games, frisbee contests, and a lot of laughs. When September came up on the calendar again, the big move to the East Campus was made. Our officers for this year were:

Gerry Ardito — President
Robin Miller — Vice-President
Meg Martin — Secretary
Donna Baiocchi — Treasurer

Almost before we got settled into our classes, meetings were begun for that important event — the Class of '78 Junior Prom. May 7, 1977, was selected as the date, and New England Jam was picked for the band. "In Terms of Two" was the theme and, "You" was chosen as the Prom song. Decorating was complicated in spite of attempts to keep it simple, and it began the afternoon of the Friday before the Prom. Several shades of pastel streamers were looped in the gym to form a tent effect. This turned into such a project it was carried over to the day of the Prom. Everyone attending the Prom enjoyed themselves. Peggy Avery was chosen as Prom Queen and Conrad Piccirillo was chosen as the King.

Our next class event was our Junior Class Party. We tried something new and had our party at Sleeping Giant State Park in Hamden. Will we ever forget those treacherous walks across the waterfall? Few were able to escape being drenched from head to toe.

September, 1977, was the beginning of our final year at N.H.H.S. We elected our officers for the year:

Dan Cahill — President
Debbie Dinneen — Vice President
Meg Martin — Secretary
Donna Baiocchi — Treasurer

Our finest event of the year was the Senior Class Dance. It was held on Friday, September 30, and the band was "Walrus". The annual Christmas Assembly was presented on December 23. As always, it was a great comedy show. Angels and elves danced around the stage, and Kurt Ginter borrowed Tom Gumbart's hands to pantomime the story of The Three Little Bears. Conrad Piccirillo did the comedic narration for the entire show.

A major event of our senior year was the compilation of Sachem '78, our school yearbook. Pictures were snapped catching people in various poses, and Who's Who were elected.

Our Senior Prom was held on Friday, June 9, 1978. The band was Erica. It was the last formal event of our high school years, and everyone had a great time.

As we looked forward to Graduation, we felt a sense of freedom. We were being released to go out and find our niche in the world. To those who helped us along the way, we say "Thank You", and to our fellow classmates, we wish much luck and happiness.

A. F. S.

It is hard to express on paper the experiences I had in Denmark this past summer. The places I saw, the people I met, and the things I did. Most of all, the knowledge I gained about myself. Leaving my home, family, and friends was the biggest step in my life.

I remember my first day in New York at orientation — so many new faces. I had said my good-byes and was feeling very alone, very fearful, and very small. I then realized that everyone else participating in A. F. S. was feeling as I did.

My first week in Denmark was spent with thirty A. F. S. members from all over the U.S.A. We had orientation together at an old agricultural school with pigs, cows, etc. Our day started at 7:00, and we ate our Danish meals together. From there we separated into groups and had lessons on the language and culture of Denmark. We were a family.

Together we experienced our first Danish words, the most popular were “Tak”, Thank you, and And “Skol”, Cheers! It was fun to speak Danish (try to) with persons who were also learning. To communicate with real Danes was another story and it wasn’t funny. Well . . . our first attempt at communicating in our new language was in a small Danish pub. We figured if people were drinking they wouldn’t notice us. They did!!!

I was the first to leave our A. F. S. family and my new one, the Olsens, picked me up. They were a young, married couple with no children. With them I had much fun. They showed me more than I had expected: Hans Christian Anderson’s home, Lego-land, Tivoli Gardens, and Danish beaches. They became family more than I imagined. I still keep in touch with them in hopes to return someday. They shared their home, family, friends, and love with me, a stranger. Leaving them was almost as hard as leaving my family here. Seeing no one my age was difficult and listening to conversations in Danish for hours at a time was hard too, but I accepted it all as part of the experience.

My last days in Denmark were spent again with A. F. S.ers, but in a totally different atmosphere — cold water, underground pits, a teepee with a hole, a lot of rain, a lot to carry, but a lot of fun!

I never could have had this experience if it weren’t for the A. F. S. Chapter here in North Haven. They worked and made the money to send me. I respect them and thank them in hopes that they too can have a taste of the world to widen their horizons.

My A. F. S. experience is now in the past but the good times, the bad times, the fears, and the friends are all memories I will treasure forever.

“Walk Together, Talk Together, All Ye People Of The Earth”

Smile!

Rozzie W. Clapp II

¡Hola a todos!

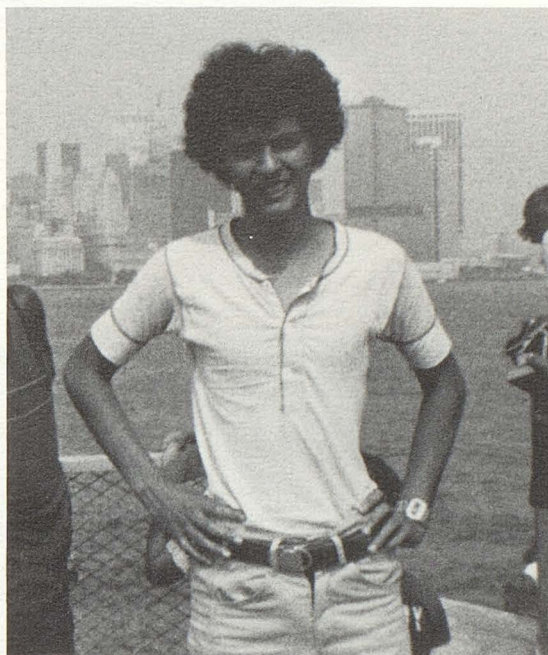

My name is Carlos Antonio, but most of my friends call me Tony because it is easier. My home is in Tegucigalpa, the capital of the Republic of Honduras, which is in Central America. When I go back home this July, I'll take with me the experience of a great year. Certainly, I can say that North Haven, Connecticut is a place I'll never forget. Here, I improved my English and at the same time I learned more about the people. It is one thing to see pictures about fall and winter and another thing to live it. I enjoyed the winter and fall in New England very much.

Besides the friendly people of North Haven, I met other A.F.S. students from all over the world during weekends and at parties. It was really nice to share ideas and talk about different ways of life.

The United States is a beautiful country, and fortunately I visited other states with my host family and A.F.S. My family couldn't be better. The Rosses (Arthur, Kay and son Jonathan) are just terrific. There are five other children, but they don't live at home. I had a fine time living with them and learning something about the Jewish culture.

I will keep in mind pleasing moments at North Haven High. All its personnel and students were nice to me. I took English, Modern European History, German III, Gym, Foods II and Communist World. I enjoyed these subjects, especially because I could choose them. In my country we don't have such options. There are twelve required subjects and you must take them.

A.F.S. is a good way to understand and know the world better, and the kids of the A.F.S. Club in North Haven are doing a good job. Thanks to them and the people I met here, I had a very valuable year. This experience will be helpful to me for the rest of my life.

AFS SUMMER EXCHANGE

When I first applied to become an AFS exchange student, I knew that if I were chosen I would learn much about the country I went to . . . it's language, it's cultures and it's history. I also knew that I would be sharing my own background with my host family. What I didn't really expect from the experience was the amount of self-knowledge and personal growth I received. Sure, I expected to change some, but I wasn't expecting a lot of new revelations. After all, I was pretty sure that I knew myself inside out. But I was surprised to find that my trip to Turkey, however brief, provided both learning and growth. I learned the difference between a woman's role in a society such as ours where she is socially emancipated but legally inferior, and a woman's role in a society where the law declares her on equal standing but social customs put her in the second class position. I learned to lower my eyes when talking with men, and defer to their opinions in conversation. I got into the habit of walking many times when previously I would have driven without a second thought. (Very few people own cars in Turkey) Equally foreign to them were the US dating customs and the way US teenagers are considered more adult than child. I also managed to pick up some Turkish, and the rest of the time conversed in French with my AFS father. But most important of all, I learned a great deal about my own life style . . . my beliefs — both political and religious — were questioned at length by my AFS brother, who was a Euro-Communist. I learned that I do have limitations, and I learned to accept myself for what I am. I made decisions and took the responsibility for them. I have gained a lot of knowledge of who I am and who I can be. I appreciate being given the chance to grow and learn through the AFS experience. Many people have told me that they regret that my experience was a failure . . . but I feel that while my experience was certainly not the norm, I can't justify calling the amount of growth I've found a failure. Allaha ismarladik.

FOOTBALL

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The North Haven Varsity Football Team experienced a somewhat disappointing season by managing only one win in ten games. Senior Tri-Captains Ed Suraci, George Melillo, Rob Pethick, and Junior Doug Carmen all received Honorable Mentions in All-Housatonic League balloting. All-around performances by Paul Hartman and Walt Pethick as well as some excellent running in the backfield by Karl Taylor were some of the highlights. This year's Most Valuable Player was George Melillo, and Karl Taylor received the Sportsmanship Award. Ed Suraci was selected as Scholar-Athlete. Due to the loss of only ten seniors, Coach Bob DeMayo looks forward to a comeback season under newly elected Co-Captains Doug Carmen and Frank DeCusati.

VARSITY SOCCER

The Varsity Soccer Team completed their best season ever by compiling a 14-4 record, and finishing second in the Housy. The Indians went to the semi-finals of the CIAC State Tournament, where they then bowed to Hall High School by a score of 1-0. Senior Brian LeSieur, and Juniors Chris Conte and Mark Bua qualified for the All-Housatonic first team. Seniors Dave Ferriauolo and Brett Flynn were selected to the second team along with Juniors Mark Celotto and Bill Joslyn. Conte and Bua also made the All-State Team. Goalie Dave Ferraiuolo recorded the most shutouts in a single season with 8, while Chris Conte lead the team in scoring with 19 goals. Ferraiuolo was also this year's recipient of the Most Valuable Player Award.

CIAC LL Championship Meet 5th

Led by Co-Captains Dan Cahill and Tim Haag, the 1977 Cross Country Team baffled the experts who had marked this as a building year. In what turned out to be one of the finest seasons in North Haven history, the long maroon line posted a 12-2 record enroute to the fifth consecutive second place finish in the Housatonic League. The harriers' finest moment took place in the last meet of the fall with their heretofore unprecedented fifth place finish in the CIAC Class LL Championships. Four returning lettermen and an equally fine Junior Varsity season (7-1) bode well for the future of distance running at North Haven.

Seniors Dan Cahill, Tim Haag, and Dave Maurer lead the team respectively in scoring, while Dan and Dave ran their way to All-Housatonic League selection. This year's Most Valuable Runner Award was voted to senior Co-Captain Dan Cahill who posted seven first place finishes, set one course record, and finished 24th in the CIAC Class LL Championships.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year the girls field hockey team completed a tough season with a 2-6-4 record, under the coaching of Lisa Gaudet and Kathy Gilbride and leadership of captain Deborah Dinneen. Their success came when senior Debra Simione and junior Nina Roche made the All Housatonic Team. The team's future looks bright with the return of many varsity players.

BASKETBALL

The North Haven Varsity Basketball Team experienced another successful season under the coaching of Jim Kenney. The Indians completed the regular season with an overall record of 16 wins and 4 losses, for a second place finish in the Housy. The season held many highlights for the team, as they were invited to the annual Q-House Festival, where they faced District League powers Lee High and Wilbur Cross. They were defeated by Cross in the finals, after previously downing Lee in a great team victory. Rob Milone was honored by receiving the Joseph McAlpine Sr. sportsmanship award in this series. In All-Housatonic League balloting, forward Vik Urbanski and guard Rob Milone were repeaters on first team. Senior Joe Matthew received an honorable mention. Also, North Haven again qualified for the CIAC State Tournament for the third consecutive year.

HOCKEY

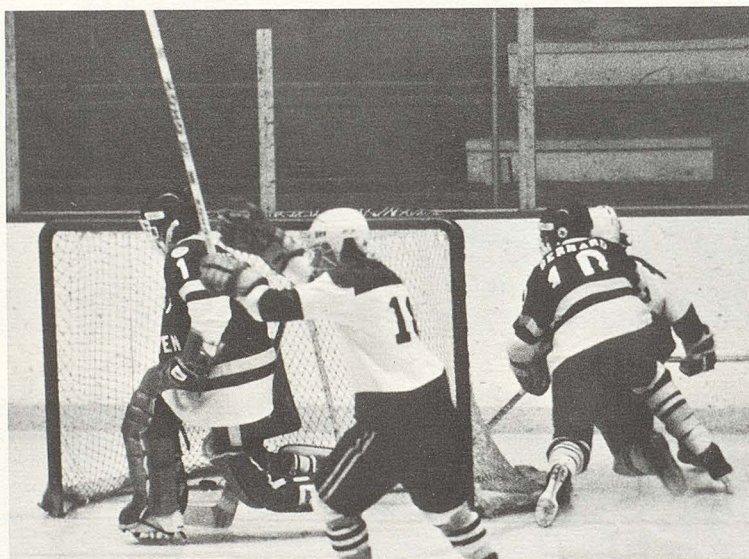

ICE HOCKEY

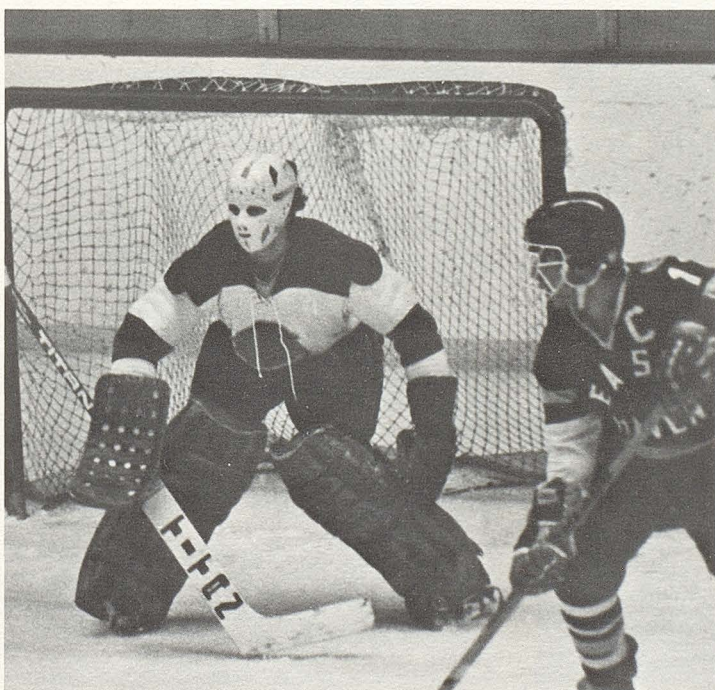

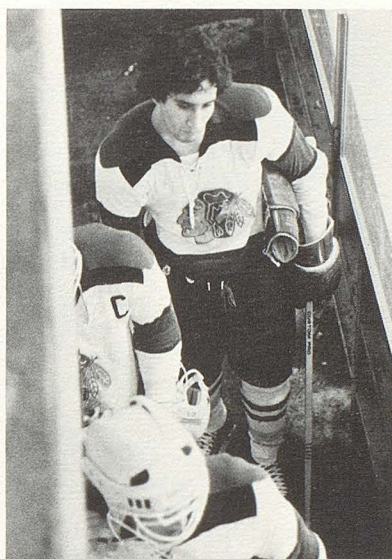

This years' Hockey Team completed one of their finest seasons under the direction of new coaches Ralph O'Connor and John Augur. They finished the season with a 14-6-1 record and a third place finish in the Housatonic League standings. In the CIAC State Tournament, the sextet defeated Rockville 4-3 in the first round, before surrendering to South Windsor 3-1 in a second round match-up. Senior Steve Hussong was selected to the All-Housatonic League first team, while Senior Jim Bernasconi qualified for second team. Seniors Dave Ferraiuolo, Larry Jetmar, Ed Holcomb, and Kevin DeMatteo all received honorable mentions.

Captains (L-R): Art Erickson, Kurt Ginter.

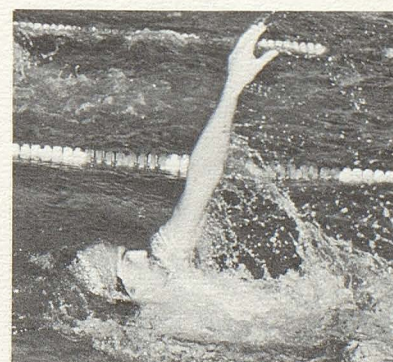

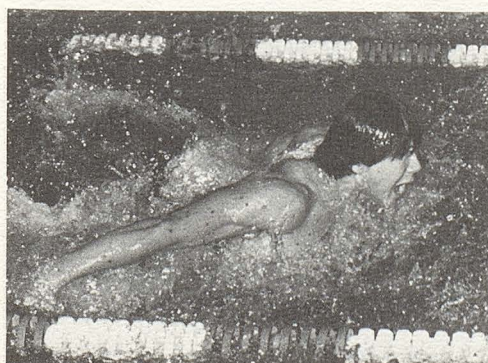

This year's swim team, led by co-captains Art Erickson and Kurt Ginter, came back from a disappointing season last year to one of North Haven's best in twelve years. Finishing with a 9-6 won-lost record, North Haven avenged last years' defeats at the hands of Lyman Hall, Southington, and Seymour by posting solid victories in the three meets. The team's record is highly indicative of the fine rebuilding job accomplished by the co-captains. Seniors Sam Hong, Tom Sbabo, and Mark Levine will be greatly missed next year. With a fine complement of juniors, sophomores, and freshmen coming up, the team is looking forward to another winning season.

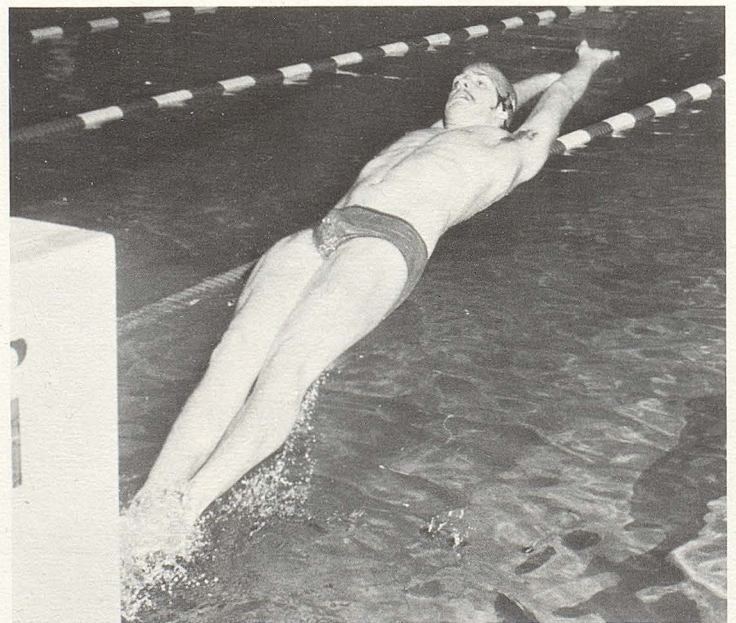

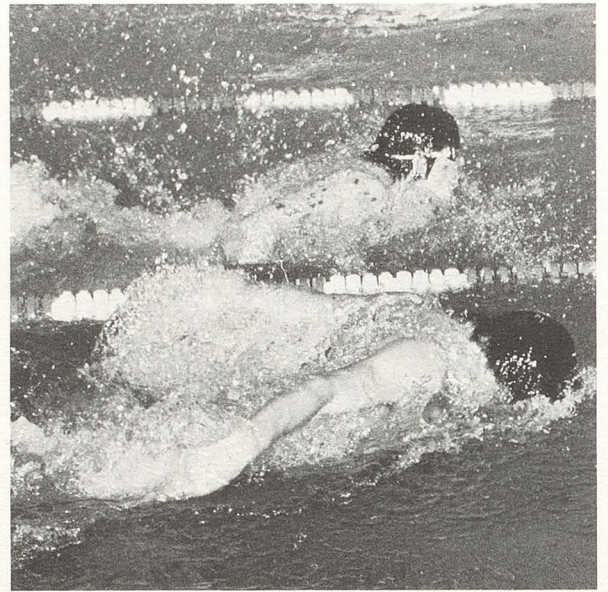

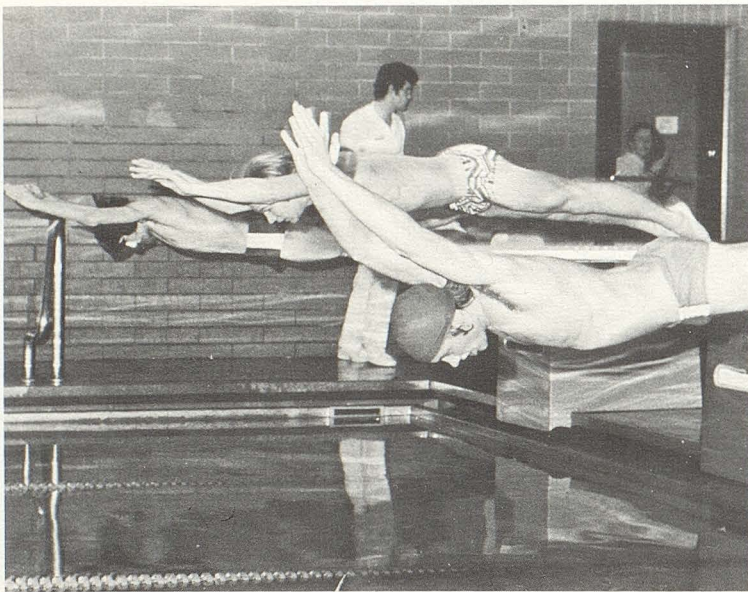

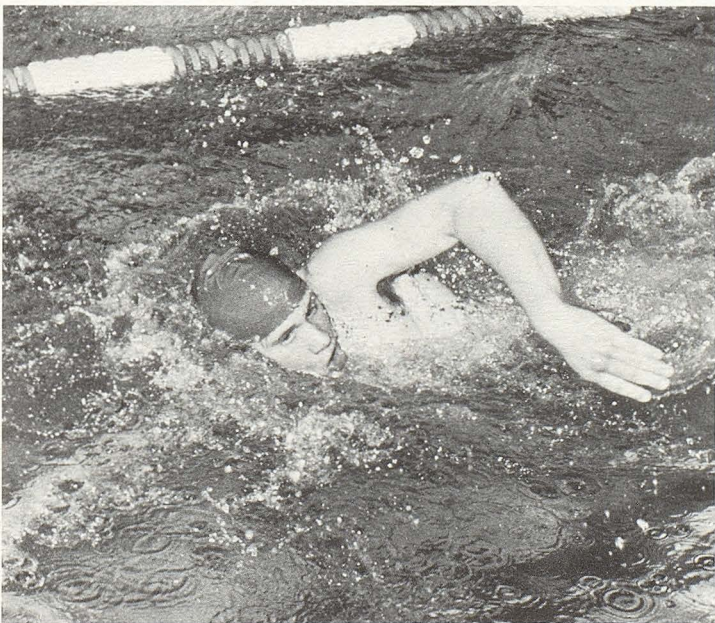

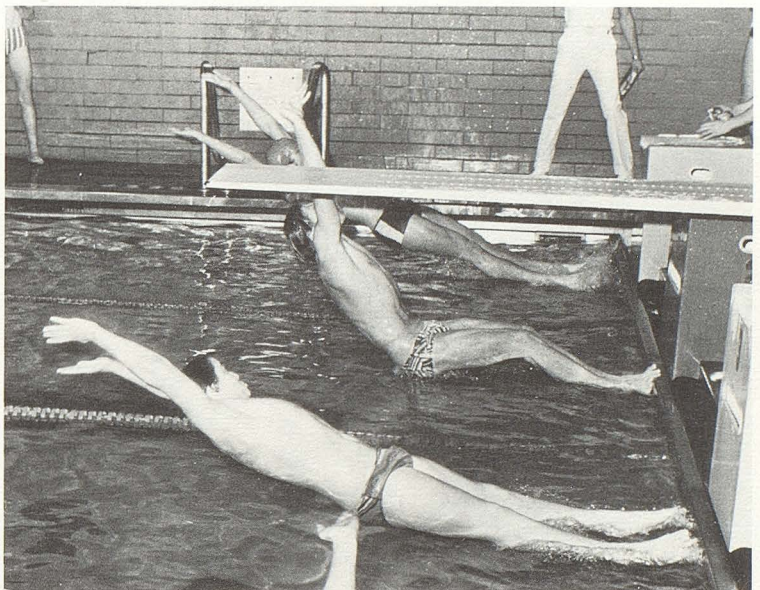

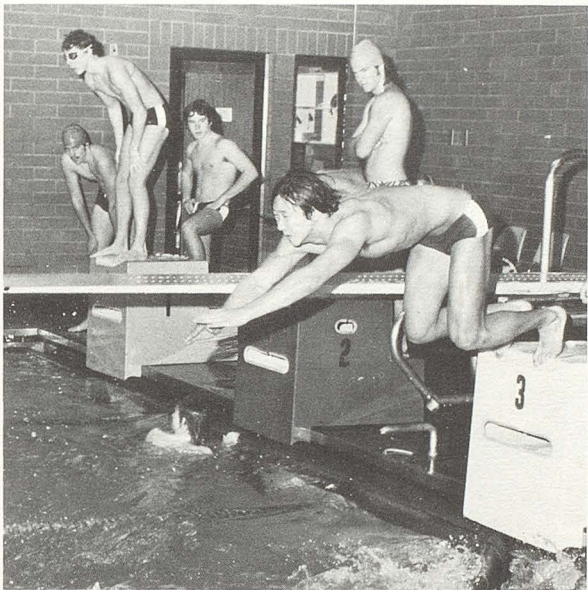

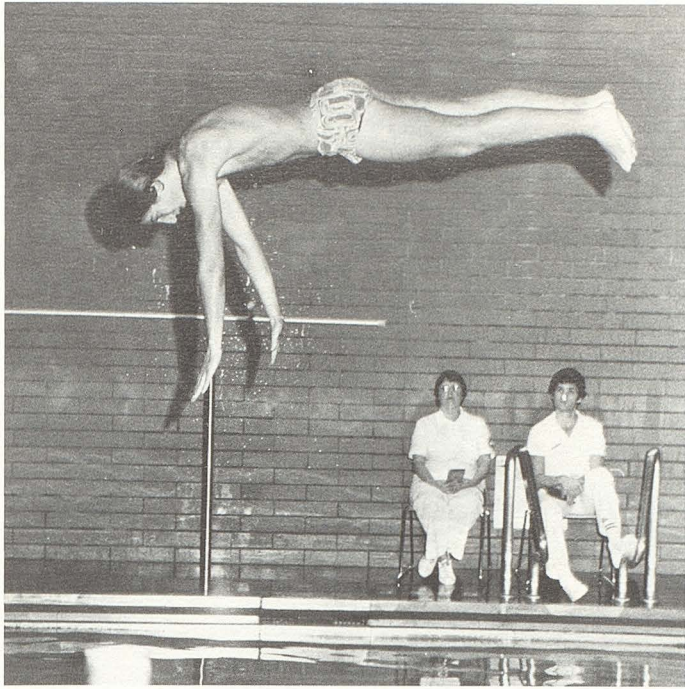

Row 1 (L-R): Dave Ferrigno, Randy Hitt, Steve Fiasconaro, Vinnie Corniello, Kevin Kowalski, Chris Male, Steve Maltese, Dave Wettstone, Chris Rubino. Love When You Can Cry When You Have To

Be Who You Must THE WORLD 1919-1938

That's A Part Of The Plan.

await your arrival
with simple survival

and one day we'll all understand class will

- We, Joe Munzner, Ken O'Brian and Chris Murray leave T.Q. in room 301 to anyone who can take it.
- I, Donna, leave the excitement of North Haven and its High School with Stacey, Sue, Lorie, Judy and Karin.
- I, Caryl Jansen, leave my yard stick baton to Mrs. DeMayo and the new baby.
- I, Joe Dacey, leave my spot as founder of the Shatzy Club to John H. Schatzlein.
- We, Anne and Mary, leave our paper bags to Wendy and Cheryl, in hopes that they won't need them again next year.
- I, Anne Johnson, leave a pair of strong ankles, a full tank of gas, 2 sober friends and 38 Rustler sodas to Chris Dailey in hopes he'll remember me always.
- I, Kathy Regan, leave the joys and tears of the past four years, with the hope that she'll have as much fun as I did to my sister, Kim.
- We, Maureen and Anne, leave to Mr. DeMayo 3 boxes of candy sticks, a winning season, many giggles, a case of laryngitis and a book of Women's Lib jokes.
- To, the Juniors and Sophomores varsity 77-78, we leave memberships of ST-OP, 3 red basketball uniforms, maroon shoe polish, 9 pizza faces, indelible red lipstick mouths, a list of chants and of course crabtree with love from Maureen, Anne, and Mary.
- We, Karin Castellano and Michele Lombardi, leave Mr. Delucia with the hopes that someone will learn to change the subject as well as we did.
- I, Tina Piscitelli, leave all the equipment and accessories needed to successfully carry on the TCFD'S tradition to my sister Mary-Beth.
- I, C.S., leave W.S. to no one.
- I, K.A., leave the attendance cards of HR 101 and front row seats to S.A.
- I, Frank Fazzino, leave the "78" on the chimney to the class of 79.
- We, the seven Maveric Murderers, leave our trips during THE frees to anyone who is daring, adventurous, has a burning hatred of N.B.H.S. gym teachers and has enough gas and necessary essentials (take us with you).
- I, Elissa, leave my very special memories with the softball team to all the underclass members.
- I, Lorile Davis, leave the good looking boys to Rhonda Trecina.
- I, the maniac, leave a valid driver's license and four speeding tickets to Tim Haag + Ben Knoll.
- I, Rozzie Clapp, leave my enthusiasm at sports activities to anyone who thinks they could yell loud enough.
- I, Sal Ferrigno, leave all the problems of getting to school, be they physical, mental or mechanical to anyone who will take them.
- I, Michael, leave a sad T.Q. to Susan Marie.
- I, K.A., leave all my great teachers and luck to F. C.
- I, Kim Tetrault, leave North Haven High School.
- I, Arthur Erikson, leave Mr. Vanacore to all the next year's 9th graders, and the thousands of detentions they will receive over the next four years.
- We, John, Rich, and Bill, leave Mrs. Stabe with one cookbook.
- I, Anita Bacchi, leave my place in T.Q. to Miss Sherman to give to someone who can fill it.
- We, Linda, Laurie, Wendy, Diane, and Ruth leave the tables in the small cafe to anyone who wants to waste their free periods.
- I, Robin Bowers, leave this school with extreme enthusiasm.
- I, Mary, leave a girl named Savino with the hopes she finds another pork chop who liked shrimp as much as I did.
- We, Karin and Michele, leave the memories of Led Zeppelin and carrying Jim around New York City to Jim Flack the Junior.
- We, Janice and Liz, leave Stephen's BLUE SKI JACKET to two people with the ability to fit in it at the same time, and not wet their pants.
- We, unfortunate Physics students, leave our 10,000 formulas to future idiots who elect Physics.
- We, Laurie and LuAnn, leave George Cottiero with all the pickles in the cafe.
- We, the Bobbsey Twins, leave Mr. Winsco with all the tests made up during his time.
- We, the Windblown Duet leave two unused gowns, a furlined red snowsuit, and a one way ticket to Minnesota to the rubber-soled robot magnate.
- We, Diane, Laurie, Linda, Wendy, and Ruth leave the corner by the foods room to whoever can stand there as much as we did.
- We, Spencer Prowse and Dave Harple, leave 10 new tires, 1 free wheel, 4 patch kits, 7 inner tubes, 16 brake blocks, 1 set of cable, 2 hubs, 1 rim, 1 set of pedals, and a stripped tenth gear cog to anyone who has the perfect record of never riding a bus in four years.
- I, Sandy Lucas, leave my community locker #453 to Diane Saldamarco to stay in charge.
- We, the Mums, leave the next class of "seniors" to Jack and Al.
- I, Sue Caprio, leave Mr. Dean a book of new Italian and Polish jokes so that he will not bore his future classes with the old ones!
- I, Pam, leave crazy Kathie my locker (1046), and to Erin; all the turkeys left in this school.
- I, Tom Ruocco, leave the words "up whats" to Dave Hill.
- We, Laura De Risi and Tom Hatch, leave the key to "Haunted House" with Albert (Baby Face) Allen and Jay (Simpson) Taylor.
- I, Cindi Ferrara, leave the field hockey "you stink" award to Debbie DeNardis who deserves it more than I did. Best of luck next year, Deb!
- We, Senator Sbabo and Representative Hunt, leave the NH delegation with power, respect and beverage.
- We, Steve Markowski and Rob Milone, leave all the lawns, Locke mowers, leave blowers, rakes, shovels, wheelbarrels, and rotary mowers to whoever can withstand cutting four lawns in 45 minutes. (Russell Road)
- I, Mike Sbabo, leave my place in the all-state chorus to Mark Maresca.
- I, Kathy Marchini, leave my sincere appreciation to Mrs. White.
- I, Debbie Redmount, leave Royce Shanley with 20 lbs. and a new back.
- I, Laurie Bisighini, leave all the good times in High School to my brother Tom and my cousin Bob.
- We, Jake and Yoe, leave carbon paper for triplicate copies of their schedules to the underclassmen.
- We, Allison Kelsey and Maria Carofano, leave the two honorary alto places in TQ plus a few to any other seniors who don't quite make it.
- We, the girls from lav 3, leave our fondest memories to Mrs. White and Lena.
- We, the E.C.A., leave the front seat of the van to Adriane Wallace. Our gang leaves a blue buick stationwagon to anyone who has the nerve to drive it.
- I, #66, leave my crutches to whoever is unlucky enough to need them.
- I, Suzannah, leave all my late slips to my brother David, hopefully he won't need them all.
- I, Karen Homa, leave my good times at NHHS to my sister Janet.
- I, Bertha, leave our masterpieces of art to Miss Dolan because they will be priceless in a few years.
- We, the Saturday Night Specials, leave a case of warm Michelob to Robbie Pethick.
- We, Joanne and Sharon, leave our partying stone to Claire, Cathy, and friends.
- I, Carol Chaplin, leave all our great memories to S.C. and C.F., knowing there will be many more.
- I, Laura DeRisi, leave North Haven High School with pleasure.
- I, Tom Hatch, leave my Volkswagen bug to North Haven High School as the #1 excuse for being late.
- I, Laurie, leave John an invitation to breakfast since he never did accept.
- I, Stephanie Parker, leave the trials and tribulations of the music department to my brother Greg in the hope that he will take full advantage of them.
- We, Denise Bramble and Lisa Kiewra, do leave the trials and trivialities of seniordom to all hapless juniors who have yet to grapple sincerely for life, liberty, and the pursuit of a High School Diploma.
- We, Corky Maiocco and Troy Shanley, leave our "superstar" bulletin board to Mr. Henderson forever.
- We, Adrienne David and Diana Gibbs, leave Royce Shanley and Donna Hitt to the new coach — Good Luck!
- I, Gerald Ardito, leave a turkey pizza every Thanksgiving to Mr. Dean.
- I, Peggy Avery, leave 1001 trips to Branford and my seat in the window to Tricia Derrico.
- We, Linda Krampitz and Julie Brink, leave the traditional maroon yearbook cover to the next year's Sachem staff who hopefully can fight as hard as we did to maintain it.
- I, Karen, leave Danny F. to my sister Lauren if she still wants him.
- I, Karen Manemeit, leave the sayings in my locker for Nancy and Tammy to fight over.
- I, Patty-Sue, leave the Novel: Volumes 1-16 to Lissa-Lou who always understood.
- I, Brian White, leave Mike Vanacore with nothing.
- I, Valerie Civitello, leave a skinny tie, THE cowboy shirt, one munchkin, and a lifetime supply of C.C.C.'s to Kevin Dinneen.
- We, Gayle Gruneis and Valerie Civitello, leave all our Italian dinners to our "paesana", Darlene Melillo. Mangia buono!

We, Terri and Cherri, leave Mr. Nigro's Bookkeeping II class with Denise and Nancy.

We, the 5/5, leave one unlined bathing suit and one broken radio to the Hammonasset Life Guard.

We, the Dum Dum Lolly Fan Club, leave our Razzle Dazzle to the NHHS Hall of Fame because we were the best! Go! Go!

I, Mike Adams, leave my overwhelming gullability to Rob Brancato.

I, Kathy McDonald, leave Mrs. White with thanks and fond memories of my senior year.

We, the NHHS Beer drinking team and present Rowdies, leave "the Rowdies" to whom so ever can live up to and defend its title.

I, Natalie Amodio, leave my parking space to Laurie.

I, Pete DePino, leave my parking space to a person who owns a Ford.

I, Cindy Pellegrino, leave my great senior year at NHHS to Kathy, Diane, Marybeth and Nina.

I, Wendy LoSchiavo, leave all the joy, fun, and good times I had in High School to all my "underclassmen" buddies, in hopes that they too will have as many fond memories to look back on as I do.

I, Jung-Won Hong, hereby leave my locker to anyone who wishes to use it.

I, Sue Swiatek and Brian Lesuir, leave our desks in Mr. Brown's C.I. class to anyone who thinks they can fill them.

I, the Southern Baptist, leave my rather impressive I.Q. to the Boy Scout and track star.

I, Ruth Potoniec, leave my 5 broken lockers, the cafe's tuna sandwiches, and the same principal to my sister Chrissie.

We, Rita Gansley and Karin Castellano, leave Lisa and Barbara to one bottle of Excedrin to give to Nick during holidays.

We, LuAnn, Janice and Liz leave all our frustrations, and all our "FLUNKED" "MAKE UP TESTS" to Bob.

We, the girls in lav 3, leave our fondest memories to Mrs. White and Lena.

We, Linda, Laurie, and Dianne leave the Hick music on Bus 2 to all the lucky kids next year.

I, Joe Rebesch, leave my studying habits to Greg Volpe.

I, Liz Hamel, leave a rain check, a t.v. set, 115 pounds of fat, and 1% with which he can do whatever he wishes, to Stephen Longobardi.

We, Sue and Sue, leave the East Campus to Greg, Char, and Gary — do with it what you will.

I, Mark Vendetto, leave my annoying clap to Mrs. Haynes.

I, Mike Calabrese, leave all my perverted jokes to Bob Scelzo Jr.

We, Amy Mendillo and Robin Miller, leave Miss Carlotto with fond memories.

We, Terri and Marisa, leave our business on the corner of Church and Chapel to Concetta in hope that she'll carry on the tradition in good taste.

We, Lissa, Patty, and Kerri leave the fun, and the hope they'll hate tennis and track, to the little sisters, Jane, Claire, Amy, and Susan.

We, the Century 21 Steno II "Experimental Group", leave 175 speedforms, a punctuation quiz, matching socks, a few flashy ties, and a new index finger to our Honorable Teacher Mr. Burrill.

We, JoAnn and Sharon, leave our partying stone to Kathy, Clair, and friends.

I, Eileen Johnson, leave all the unfinished, tactical maneuvers in oceanology to Steve Longobardi.

We, the WCC'S (Karen, Julie, Gayle, and Robin), leave the title to carry on and uphold, to Wendy Clinton who appreciates WCC'S as much as we do.

I, Eileen Johnson, leave my memories of NHHS to my brothers Eric, Neil, and Chris — I hope they have as much fun as I did.

I, Elizabeth, leave Stephen in the hands of Donna Scafariello to take care of and keep an eye on.

I, Eileen, leave a Red Fire Engine and an empty beer bottle to Billy Augur.

We, the girls' field hockey team, leave a box of grass seed, a watering can and a lawn mower to Mr. Preziosi for his summer vacation.

We, Megger, Swi, S.S. Gould, Charlene, & Peg-leg II leave dead balls, cars, fantastic serves, sets, bumps and cheers to the N.H.H.S. volleyball team, may they remember us all.

I, Jim Evans, leave my three- year-old gym clothes (unwashed) to the P.E. Department.

We, the seniors, leave the attendance policy with pleasure.

We, the Mean Members of America, leave this High School to any Robust Ruffians in the world, if they're still alive.

We, the foxiest clique, leave our status to the IKON Press in hopes that they will find another clique who will give them as much to report about as we did!

We, the students of Mr. Archangelo, leave his Math 4 class to all the upcoming Lillyputians.

I, Bobby "Big Thighs", leave my pants to anybody who can fill them.

We, Stumpy, Lizzy Tish, & Mitch leave Slim (Mr. Connell) with fond memories.

I, David Dauria, leave the Book of Fundamental Football to Coach ? DeMayo.

We Spike, Spike & Spike leave our spiking abilities to any future spikers.

We, the Seniors, leave Mr. Vanacore to the future ninth graders — Good Luck ninth graders!

We, the Sachem Staff, leave 1,000 Scooterettes to Mr. Bischoff.

We, the Spikes, leave Mr. Rickart's Physics class with the most unbelievable frustration; then joy.

We, IKON PRESS, leave our cloud of smoke, power of suggestion, wit, sarcasm and belief in freedom of the press to the martyrs of next year's staff.

I, Joseph N. Stallings, Jr. leave all my lighting skills with Bill, Adrine, Dana.

We, Sue, Julie, Janice, Liz, Cindy, Tracey, Cheryl & Antoinette leave our PO-KE-NO set to anyone who likes to make up their own rules.

We, Gayle and Valerie, leave the muddy, icy path and all the trips in a crowded car to Bobby, Mark and Larry.

I, Joe Mastrantonio, leave my paint brush to Steve Longobardi and Rich Broga.

We, Quarzie and Wilke, leave a book of travelers checks and last period free to Marty and Spiggy and anyone who can laugh harder than we did.

I, "C.B. Blusher", leave "Pansy" Henderson my pink gloss lipstick, red satin dress, and my "corner."

I, Representative Hunt, leave the North Haven Model Congress tradition to anyone who can uphold the famous tradition and high standards.

I, Charlene, leave the ability to put spirit into the Volleyball team to Dolly.

We, the Ford lovers Mark, Mart, Ken, Mark, Joe, Loe, Eric, John, and Kurt leave our Marks and Memories to I.A. Departments.

We, Maura and Eileen, leave the trolley car at Fenway Park to Mr. Iannone and Mr. Bischoff.

We, K.O. and K.R., leave our times of being "in the mood" to Bev Corniello.

I, Karen O'Hare, leave a lot of patience and fun times to the captain of the Indianette squad next year.

I, Karen O'Hare, leave all/of my good times and memories of NHHS to my sister Patty.

I, Karen O'Hare, leave the greatest baseball team ever, the Boston Red Sox, to my good friend Frank Porto.

I leave my happiness to the Class of '79.

I, Bob Budney, leave my "ways" of getting through the year to my brother Bruce who needs them.

I, Carol Williams, leave decorating Chris Conte's locker to anyone who can find better pictures of models.

We leave to #2 and #9, "If It Feels Good, You Should!"

We, Pam and Kris, leave our flashlight to Jimmy and George.

I, Claudia DiLeva, leave an 8 oz. 150 calorie carton of milk to Mrs. Merchant.

We, the girls of lav 3, leave our fondest memories to Mrs. White and the class of "79".

We, "Our Gang" leave TCFD'S, Friday nights, jackpots and interesting detours to Leslie Gruneis and Pam Pellegrina and anyone else who thinks they can duplicate them.

I, Anita Steeves, leave my messy locker to anyone with heart enough to clean it.

I, Sandi Carrone, leave Bob Tencza a life-time supply of Pomegranite.

I, Linda Ramsey, leave the corner by the 300's to anyone who wants it.

I, Conrad Piccirillo, leave nothing in my will because the Board of Education wouldn't give enough money to fund it.

I, Lissa Fletcher, leave to Mr. Bischoff and Mr. Iannone the hope that the staff of Sachem 79 has the ability to meet deadlines without an undue amount of arguments, hysteria and tears.

Good-Luck.
