*Sunny bright mornings
And pale moonlit nights,
Keep me from feeling alone.
Now, I'm learning to fly,
And this freedom is like
Nothing that I've ever known.*

*I've seen the bottom,
And I've been on top,
But mostly I've lived in between.
And where do you go,
When you get to the end of your dream?*

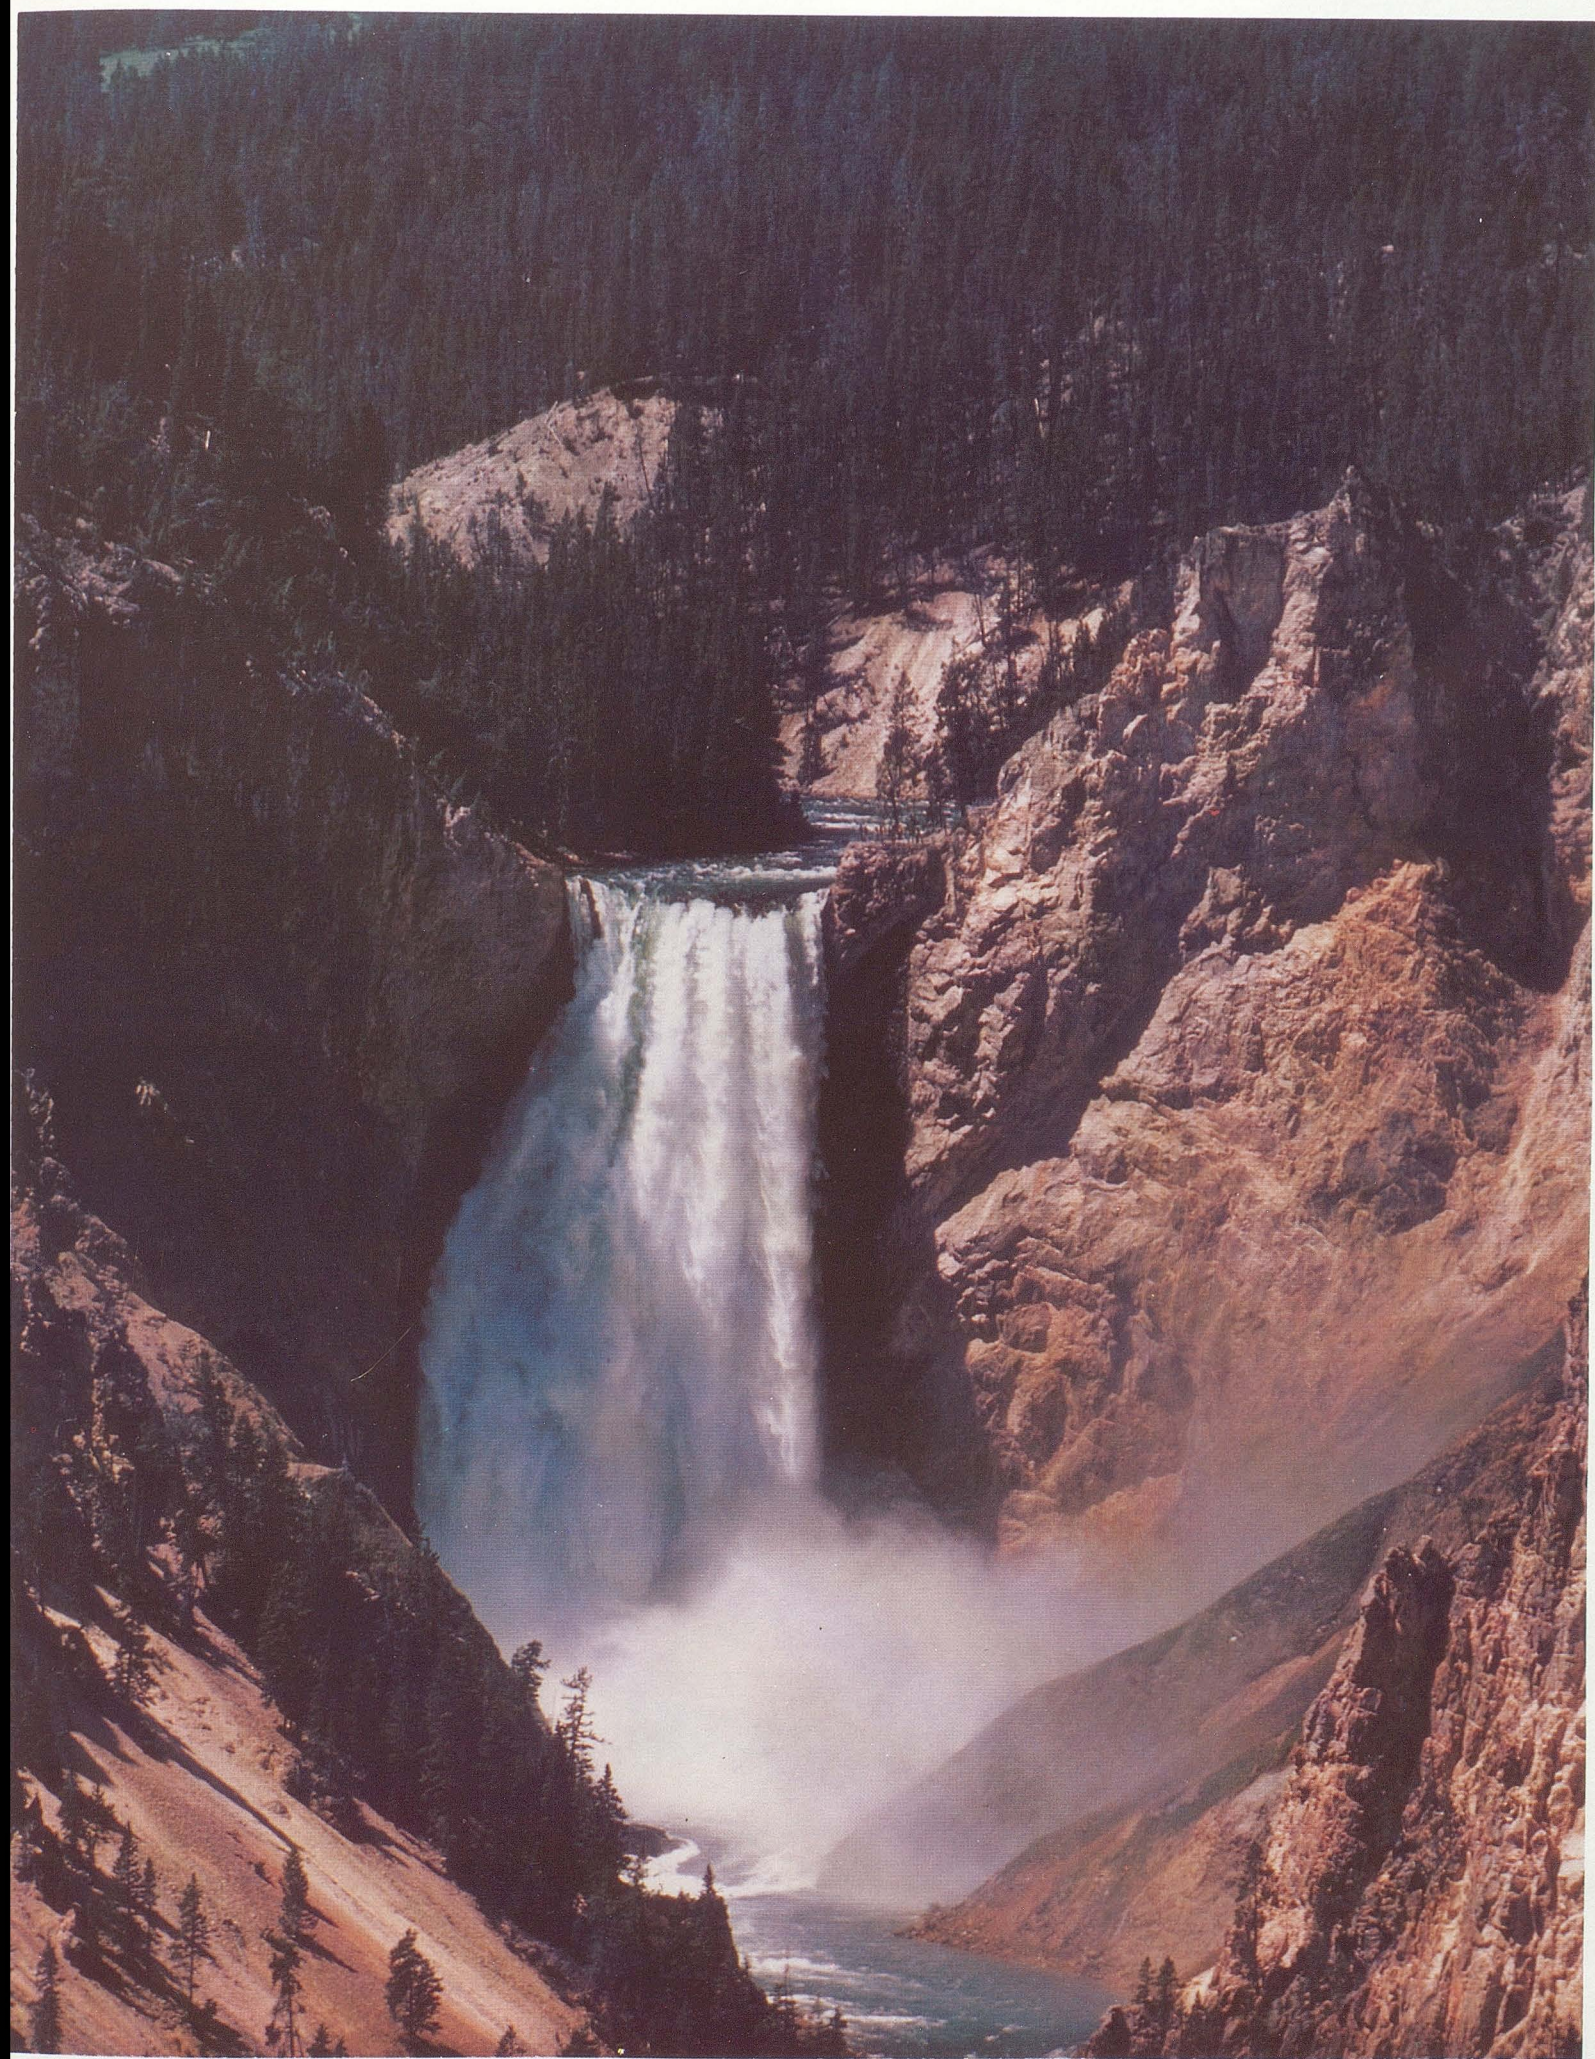

*Once in a vision,
I came on some woods,
And stood at a fork in the road.
My choices were clear,
Yet I froze with the fear,
Of not knowing which way to go.*

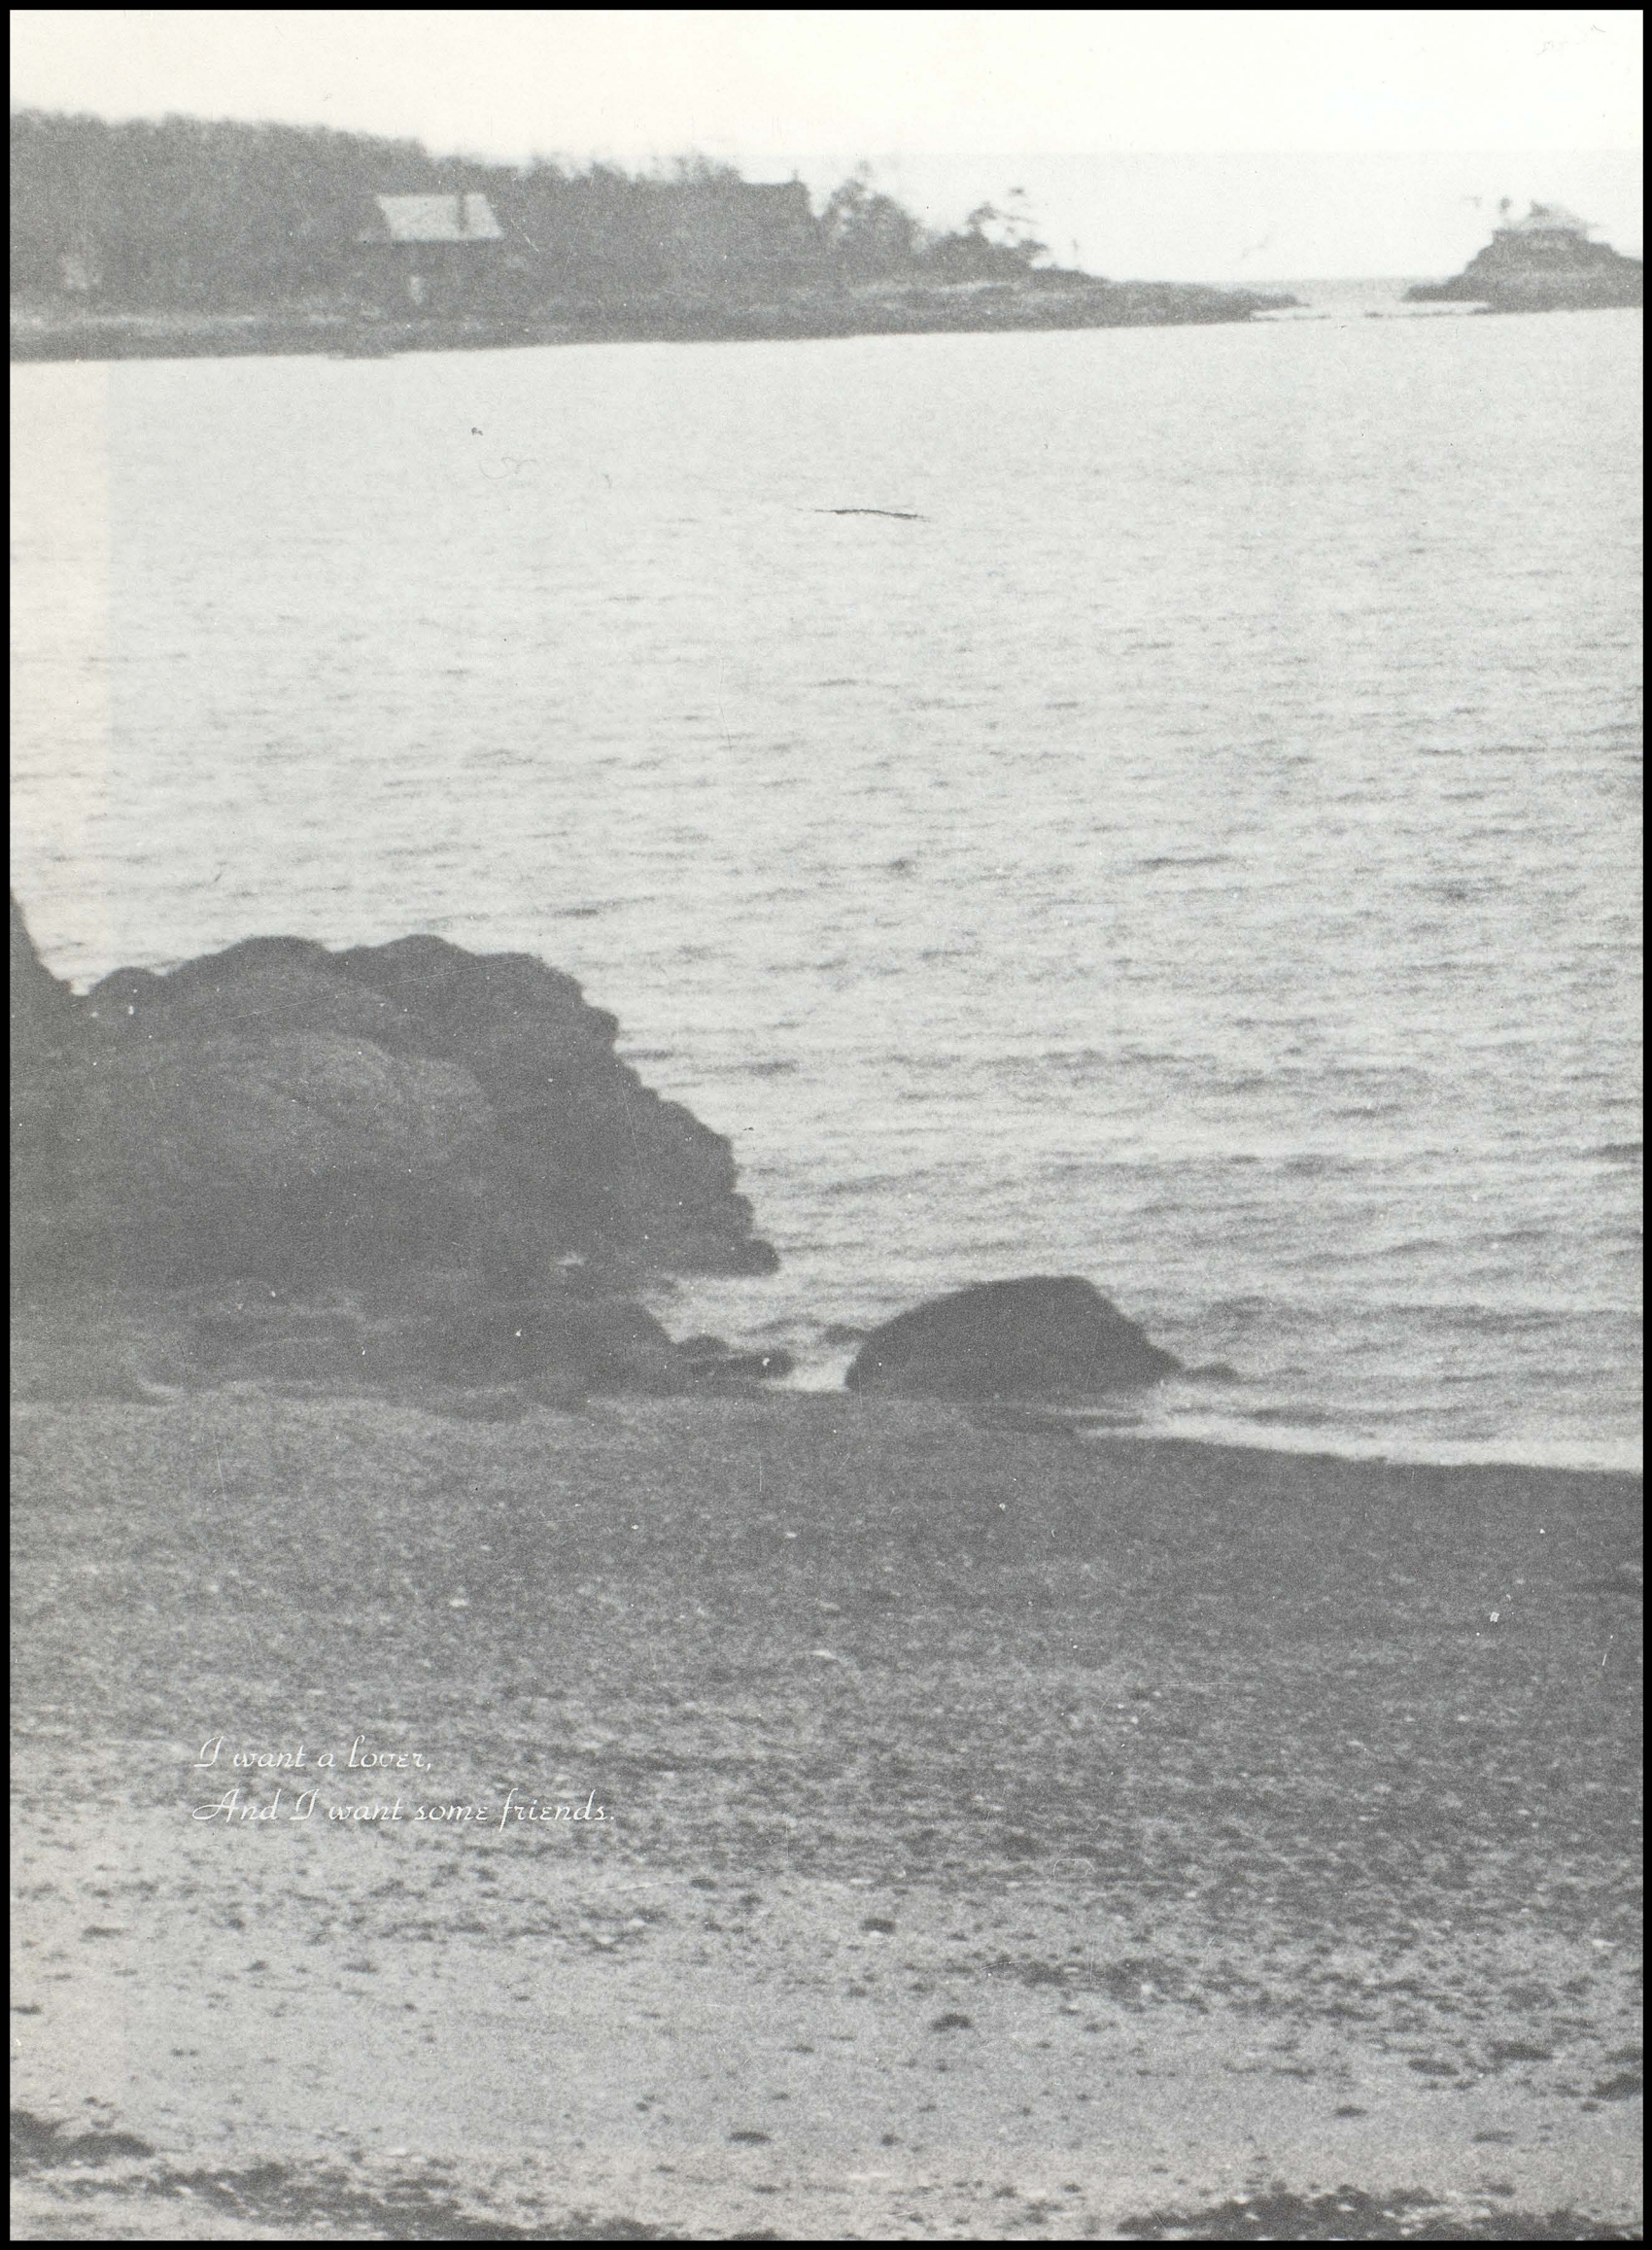

*One road was simple,
Acceptance of life,
The other road offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision,
My vision became my release.*

*High on this mountain,
The clouds down below,
I'm feeling so strong and alive.*

*I want a lover,
And I want some friends.*

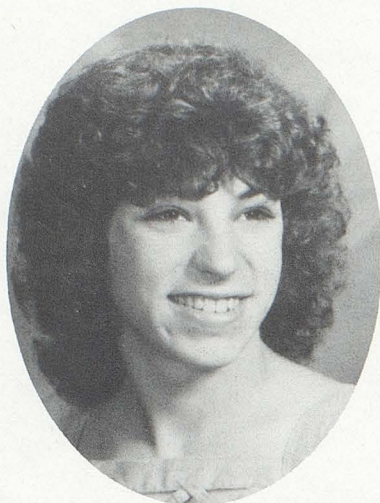

*I want to live in the sun,
And I want to do all the things
That I never have done.*

There's a strange feeling of loneliness after school is over . . .
The halls are empty . . .
The air is silent
The shadows begin to lengthen . . .
Then nothing is left but memories

S A C H E M

The experience of creating a lasting memory of our high school years has been unforgettable. We have learned much about responsibility and dedication through the continuous development of this book. Working with contemporaries as well as advisors has been essential to the final product. The many phases of this past year will remain with us always.

Sincerely
Jeanne O'Brien

CLASS WILL

I, Jeralyn Fantarella, leave Concetta Muzio one bushel of diced onions.

I, Bill Rhone, leave North Haven High School with the hopes that any underclassman has a chance to go out with a girl who is as pretty and as nice as mine.

I, Holly Mulcahey, leave my Basketball game spirit to Diana Terry and my end of "Goofus" to Mary Jetmar.

I, Debbie Hogan, leave NHHS to my jock sister Maureen, in hopes that she will break her record of 141'½". Good Luck Maureen.

I, Brenda Eddy, leave my three sisters Daren, Christine, and Eileen all my notes and Luck for the years to come.

I, Barbara Raccio, leave Debbie Diehl my counseling wisdom to help any poor desperate soul.

I, Norine Paduano, leave all my teachers and all the hard work to my sisters Patty and Karen.

We, the P.O. Club, leave our name to all who are capable of receiving a P.H.D.

I, Michele Desmond, leave the Cafeteria food to anyone with a sharp knife, a pistol, and a leash.

We, Teri and Maureen, leave IKON with great memories of good times.

I, Stephen Rapuano, leave the understanding that without my coaches I was nothing.

I, a previous owner, leave locker 1316 to anyone who has no value for money or belongings.

I, Gueneviere Bulsara, leave a bag of M&M's, a bottle of Moet et Chandon, an empty wall, a safety pin, a skinny tie, and an empty mailbox to Kashmir Bulsara.

I, Cindy, leave all of my terrific teachers to my sister Sharon.

I, Nancy Tiefenbrunn, leave individuality in dress to Kelly Rielly, Debbie Colby, and Mary Tiefenbrunn.

We, Farrah and Suzanne, leave Jacqueline a Que-Si-Be.

I, Susan LaPalombara, leave the frustration of reading newspapers with wooden poles in them to Leslie and Cathy, and the grave responsibility of being a leader to Sahoko.

I, Karen Haury, leave all the odd jobs that Mrs. Ramy gave me to do to some other lucky girls.

I, Robin Glenn, leave this school gladly.

I, Barbara, leave my locker to anyone who can lock it.

I, Estelle Santoemma, leave my "Most Talkative" to Michelle Cody.

I, Karyn, leave all my sensitivity to those who took advantage of it.

We, Debbie Tiberio and Karen Ditallo, leave our steno pads and unmailable letters from the past two years to Ms. Williams.

We, Alberta and Laurie, leave our eight lockers to anyone who can fill them all.

I, Laurie Leonard, leave my broken locker to my brother Tommy and Mike DellaValle.

I, Jonathan Ross, leave my bad fingerings and notes with Mr. Winsco.

I, Linda Burke, leave North Haven to the mercy of my own lovable terror David Vincent.

We, Sue, Anne, and Cip, leave all of our GREAT talks in the cafe to anyone who can handle them.

I, Linda, leave my sister Lori my safe, unlockable locker.

I, Judy Ryan, being of sometimes sound mind and body, hereby leave my sister, Virginia, all the happy times, good friends, and fortune I've had and loved. Go Get 'EM!

I, Concetta Muzio, leave Beth (Slugger) O'Brien a pair of Boxing gloves.

I, Debbie M., leave "The Doc" to the upcoming ninth graders! Good Luck!

We, the Three Musketeers (BAM), leave all our late arrival notes, to anyone who can forge as well as we did.

I, Don Bogart, leave my perfect homeroom attendance to Mrs. Lee.

I, Cindy Burton, leave locker 556 to MaryLou Pedalino as long as she never tells where it originated from.

We, Lori Hudson, Leslie Hunt, Kathy Jensen, Michelle Beauvais, and Faith Caldwell, leave our Friday nights to Elaine Yaccarino, Kathy Aurora, Wendy Michley, Debi Perandi, and Angela Pelliccio.

I, Regina Ciarleglio, leave "the Bogie" to all my junior buddies in hopes that they will continue the tradition of bestowing it upon the Bogan of the Week.

We, Frank DeCusati and Scott Porter, leave to Ralph Black and Tom Casey, our cheerleading positions for the next two years.

I, Rosemarie Fiorillo, leave Mr. Rickart my bells for his much needed Christmas spirit, and may Santa Claus be merciful to him this year and many after.

We, Tracy and Mary, leave to Mr. Connell's classes all the fun class time we had with "Slim Pickin's" and Mr. Antonelli.

We, The Senior Varsity Cheerleaders, leave all of our fond memories to the remaining Varsity Squad in hopes that they will cherish our great times as much as we did.

I, Melanie Norback, leave the best two years of my life so far to anyone lucky enough to have the same.

I, Ann McNamara, leave my cousin Shephaine all my D's on my report card to carry on the good work.

We, Jennie and MaryGrace, leave a stack of paper to Mr. Fiore to twiddle his fingers through, to pass class time.

I, Tom Corcoran leave my car keys to MaryAnn, Sue, Marco, and the Hamden Fire Dept.

I, Mark leave Jeanne, Tim and Erin, with the times we had in N.Y. P.S. Wanna buy a carnation?

We, Cheryl Piscitelli, Sue Casey and Wendy Clinton, leave the task of making up a new morning announcement every morning to next year's Senior Cheerleaders.

I, Nancy Conway, leave all my fond memories and great times in high school to my sister, Jane, in hopes that she enjoys her remaining years as much as I enjoyed mine.

We, the Soccer Team, leave our easy going attitudes so the rest of our members will be able to put up with Jumpin' Joe next year.

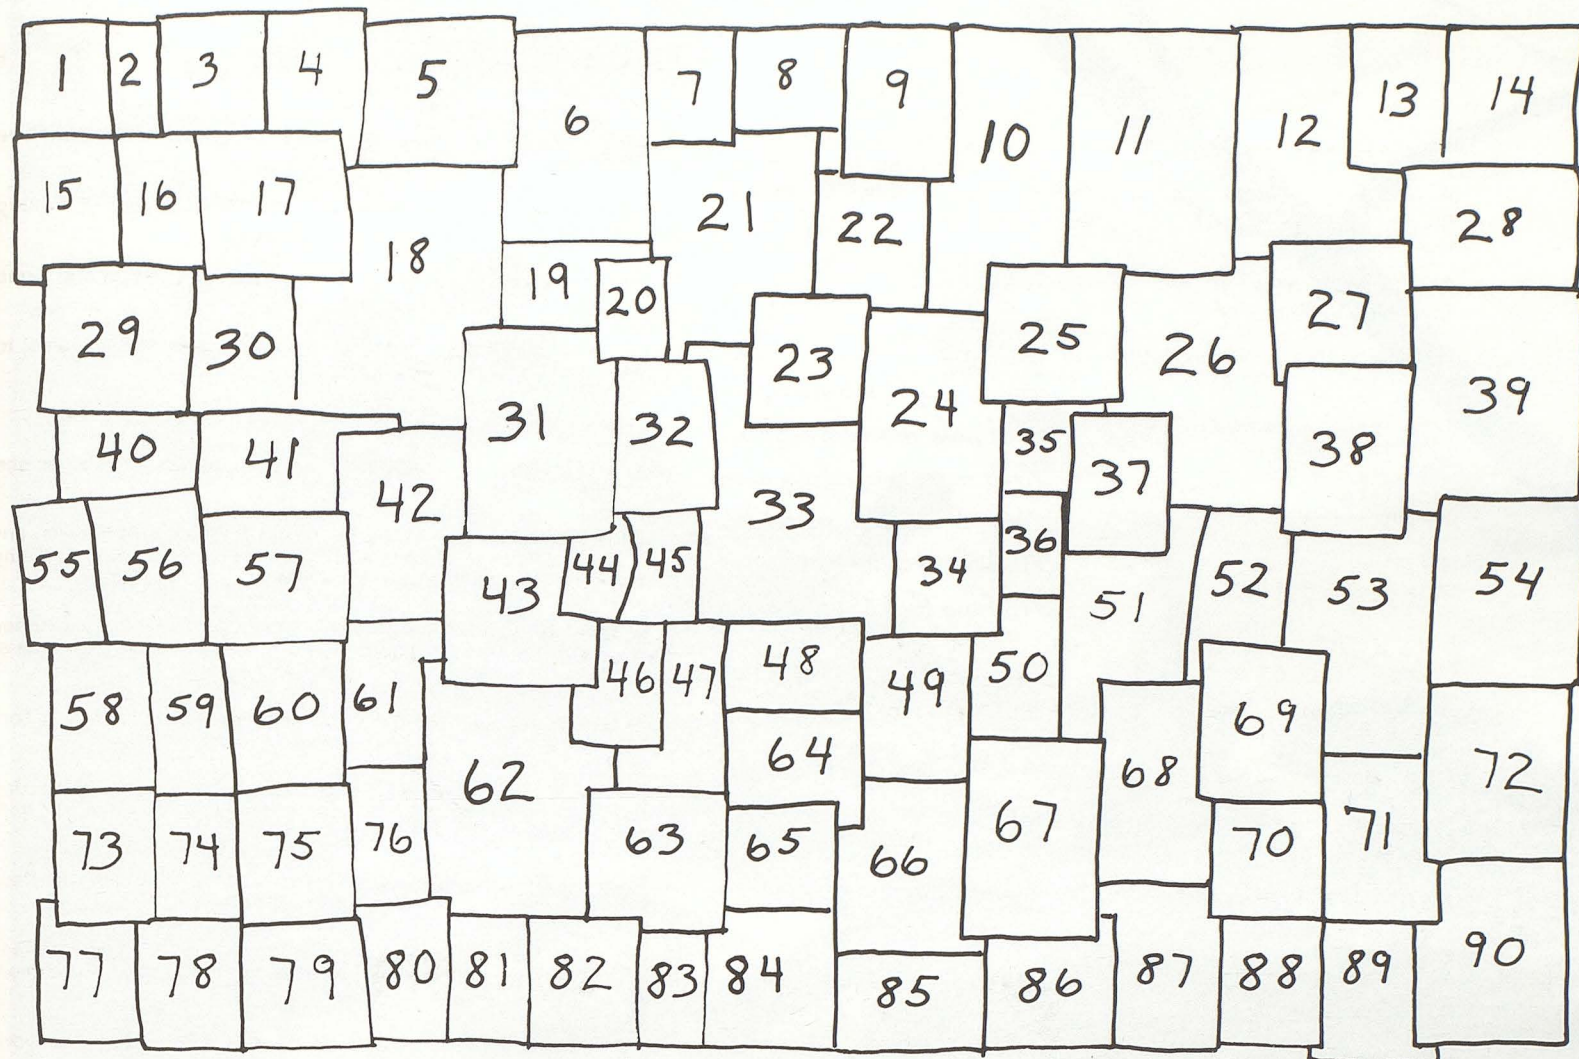

We, the 1978-1979 Student Council Officers, leave next year's officers North Haven High School, for better or for worse.

I, MaryGrace, leave to Mrs. White a lot of love and support that she has given me the past four years.

We, the Senior Class, leave all our college bulletins, catalogs, applications, interviews, and campus visits, our SAT's and Achievement tests, our Barron's and Lovejoy's handbooks, our headaches, our joys of being accepted, our depression on being rejected, and our anxiety to next year's Senior Class.

I, Tim Murphy, leave my brother Peter and cousin Mark a stack of "funny" magazines in Canada for the next ski trip.

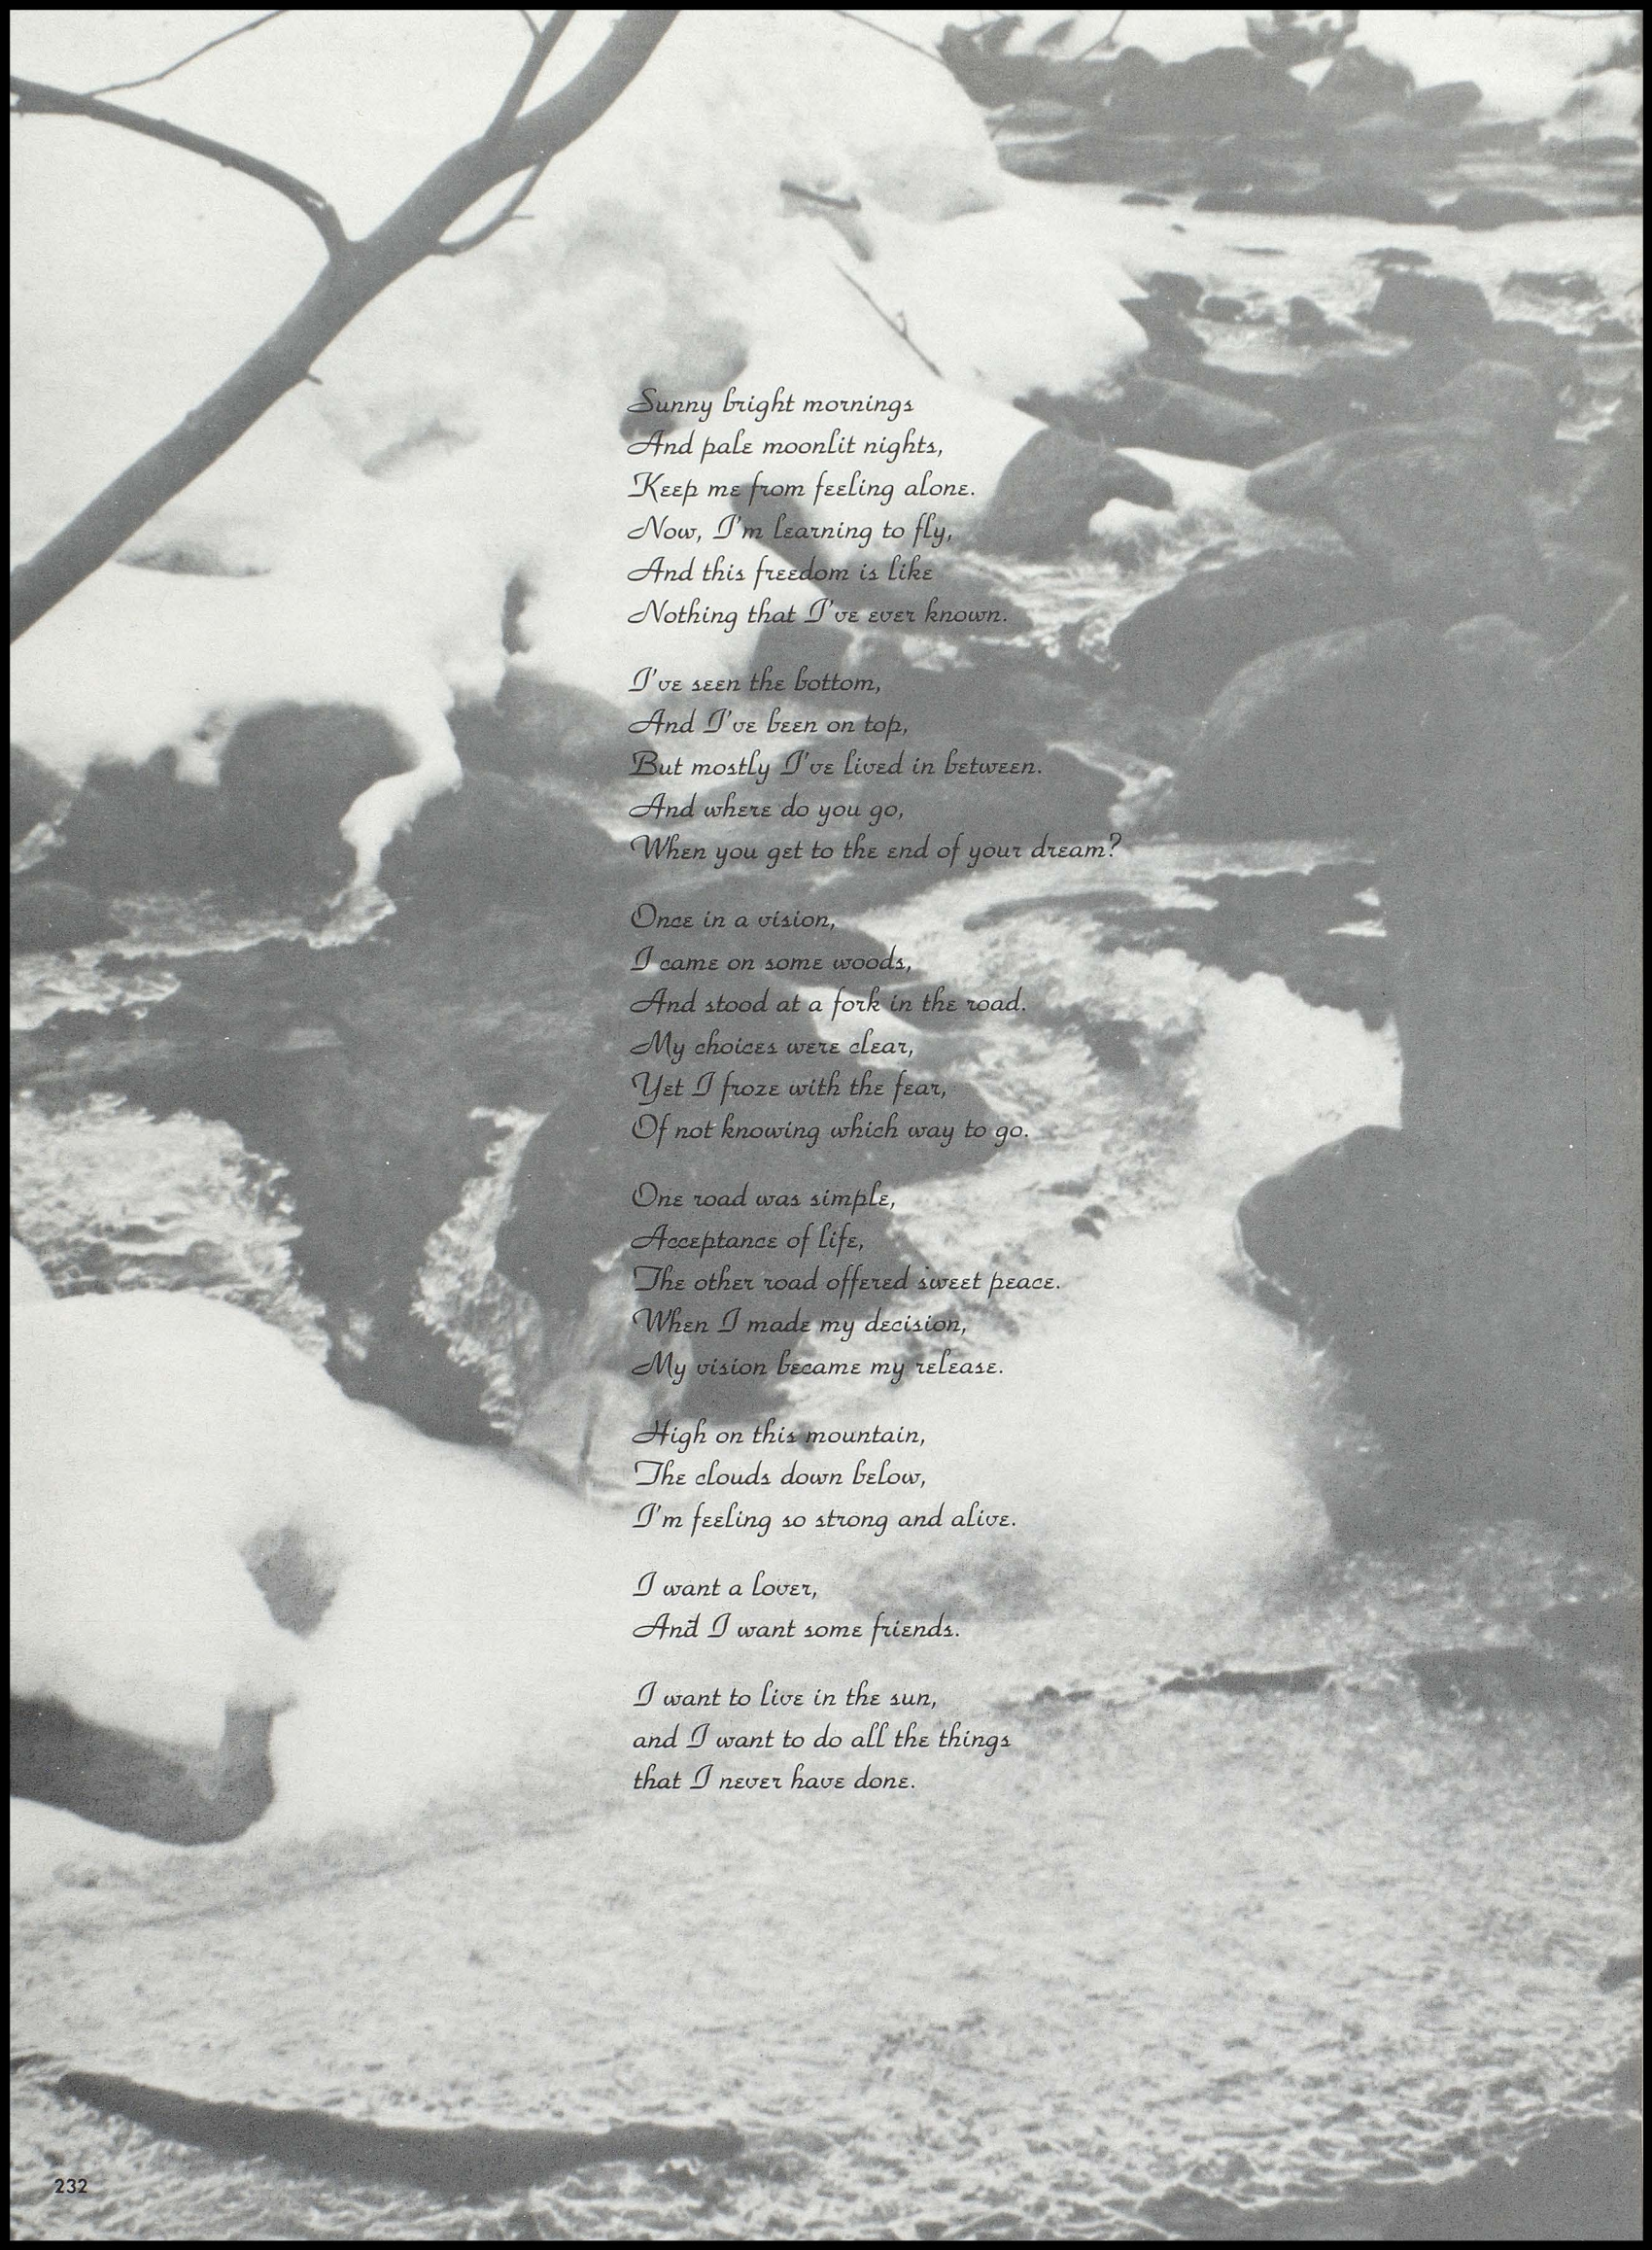

I, Suzanne Duff leave to my sister Kathy, all the great memories of High School.

*Sunny bright mornings
And pale moonlit nights,
Keep me from feeling alone.
Now, I'm learning to fly,
And this freedom is like
Nothing that I've ever known.*

*I've seen the bottom,
And I've been on top,
But mostly I've lived in between.
And where do you go,
When you get to the end of your dream?*

*Once in a vision,
I came on some woods,
And stood at a fork in the road.
My choices were clear,
Yet I froze with the fear,
Of not knowing which way to go.*

*One road was simple,
Acceptance of life,
The other road offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision,
My vision became my release.*

*High on this mountain,
The clouds down below,
I'm feeling so strong and alive.*

*I want a lover,
And I want some friends.*

*I want to live in the sun,
and I want to do all the things
that I never have done.*
