REFLECTIONS

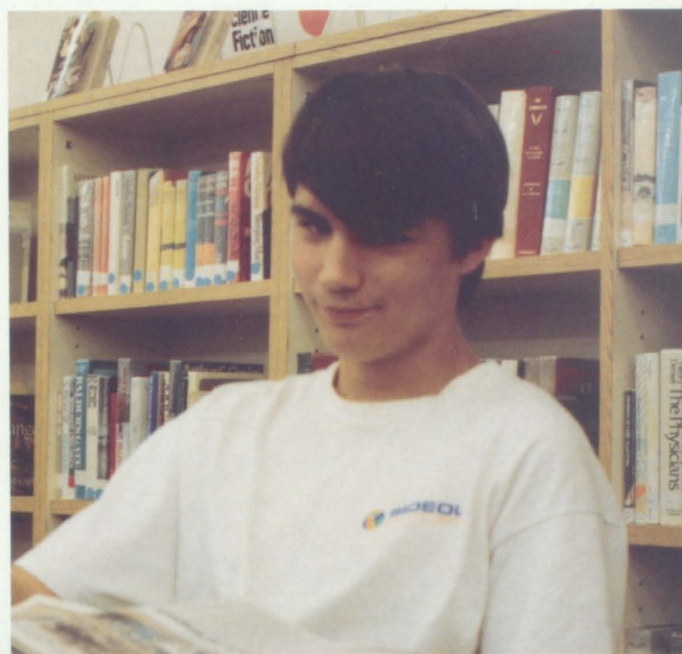

Good times, laughter, and special friends reflect the class of 1991. As our senior year comes to a close, we are feeling many emotions. Some of us are excited and scared about starting college or new careers, while others are sad at the thought of leaving our many friends and teachers. Whatever emotions we are experiencing, we will always have wonderful memories of our days at North Haven High School ...

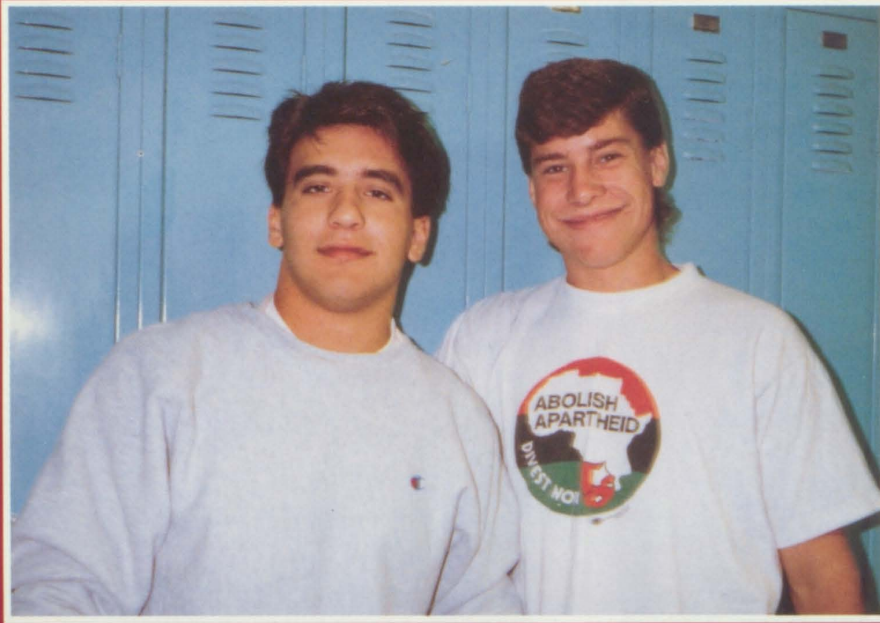

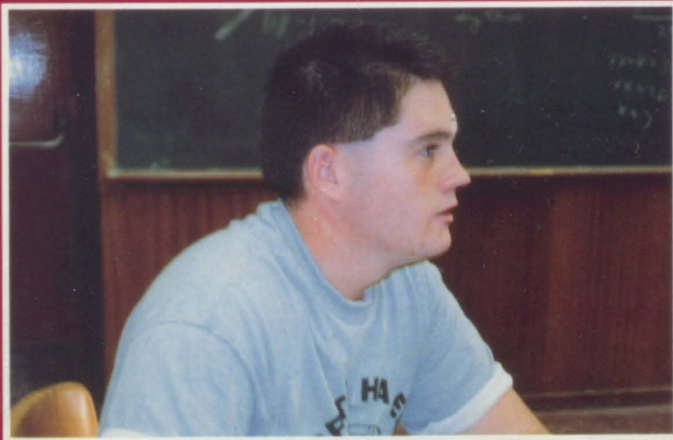

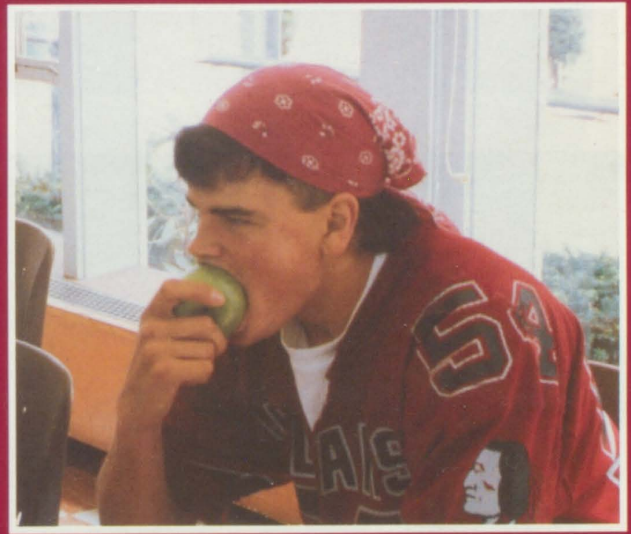

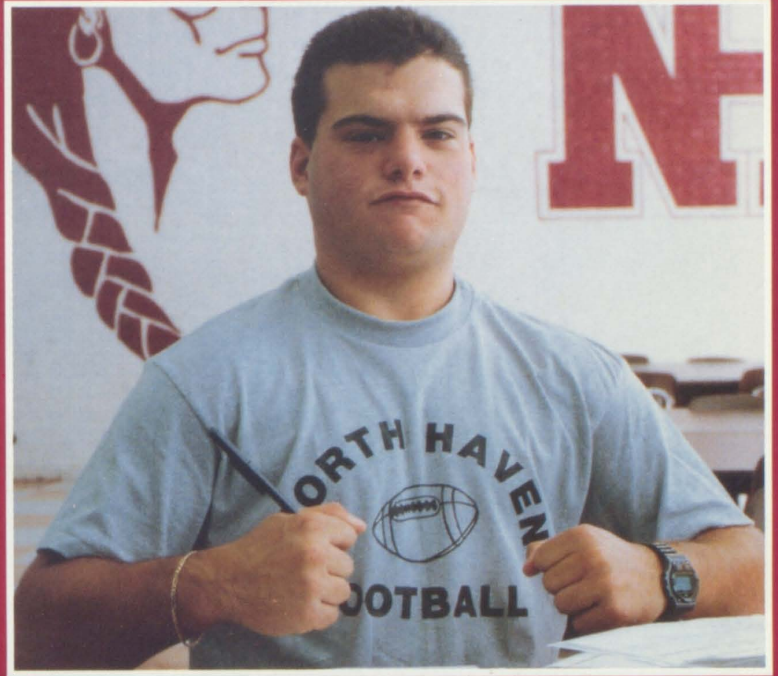

... We'll take our knowledge and support and make a difference in whatever path we choose. The banner, "Something Important Happens Here" reflects us! We gave our talents and spirit to this school, and in turn it gave us back respect, honor, and lifetime friends. "As the golden thread of knowledge weaves a path into the light, we will always carry with us, mem'ries of maroon and white."

It seems like yesterday when we all started ninth grade. People told us that the next four years would be among the best in our lives. We did not think much about that then. We were more concerned with the challenges of high school life.

Ninth grade was the year we lipsynced to our favorite singers and performed in front of our peers. We had our first formal class dance, our first chance to get dressed up and have a good time, and we did. The experience foreshadowed the bigger class dance yet to come.

The big step into the senior high seemed terrifying. We had heard stories about the high school, but nobody knew quite what to expect. The step was not as long as we feared it would be; we adapted quickly.

This was a time of new experiences. We had to learn the high school administrative policies; we received our class ranks for the first time and many athletes had the chance to compete at varsity levels.

Eleventh grade brought with it more confidence. We had weathered a year at the high school, and we had school life down pat. We were no longer the new kids in school. Donkey Basketball made donkeys of us all as well as earning money for our class. The big finale was when we danced our feet off at our junior prom.

The prom at Septembers was a big success. When Bob Graybill and Deanna MacNeil were crowned king and queen of the prom, the D.J. Pat Tuttle played the prom theme. We listened closely to "Why Can't This Night Go On Forever", by Journey, wishing that it would.

Finally, it was here. Senior year rolled around making the class of 1991 top gun. It was a time to take S.A.T.'s and to start making decisions about our future . . . Whether to further our education or to get a job in the "real" world. Our high school careers seemed to fly by. We remember what people told us in ninth grade about our high school years being the best of our lives. Well it is still too soon to tell now if that will be true, but one thing is sure, it won't be easy to top these four years.

No matter what happens to us in the future, whether we come across good times or bad times, we can all look back and reminisce about all the great years we had together in high school. We can hold our heads up high and say with pride, "I was a member of the North Haven High School Class of 1991."

DEDICATION

MARJORIE FEINN

Barely ten years our senior, Miss Marjorie Feinn gained the respect and admiration of our class within a few short weeks. Taking on the huge job of Sachem Advisor, she approached everything with a positive, give-it-your-all attitude! Miss Feinn's leadership and support guided us all the way. We could always count on her for a smile or a friendly tip.

We are very grateful for Miss Marjorie Feinn. She listened to each one of us and helped us learn the important lessons of working together towards a common goal. Thank You, Miss Feinn, for all your guidance, time, patience and care. "Reflections" would not have been possible without you.

I, Carol Gilchrist, leave my sister a wonderful last year in the high school.

We, Penny and Cindy, leave all the AEP teachers lots of luck with the future class.

We, Karen Lobasz and Carol Gilchrist, leave the lunch flip to anyone who can figure out what it means.

I, Tanya, leave Karen and Tammy a winning season in field hockey.

I, Tanya, leave Tommy to lead one last time the chant of Bam Bam.

I, Lynne, leave Kim Montano a drivers license, my car and my job.

We, Anne and Jennifer, leave Mrs. Blythe fall frolics, continental breakfasts and a delicious bologna sandwich.

We, Ron Colavolpe and Jen Croteau, leave Michael and Heather great times and special memories at N.H.H.S.

We, Krista and Jen, leave our team blue eyeshadow, purple knee-hi's, plastic earrings and of course matching lipstick with the hope of a more successful season!

I, Jennifer, do not leave Anne, Alicia, and Krista because they are the best friends anyone could ask for.

I, Jennifer, leave my mom a tremendous thank you for everything she's done, along with a box of Kleenex for graduation.

We, Mrs. Valanzuolo's AP English Class, leave next year's class Crime and Punishment and a lot of patience.

I, Deanna, leave my brother Scott N.H.H.S. and hope that he'll do the best he can and always believe in himself.

We, Deanna and Beth, leave behind our lockers full of dinosaur stickers to the next lucky occupants.

We, Beth and Deanna, leave our ever-so-fond memories of North Haven High School and take with us the friendship that brought us through it.

I, Jascin Leonardo, leave all of my jokes that had no punch line to all the people who put up with them.

I, Jascin Leonardo, leave Mrs. Blythe all of my "chip" test prints for her collage.

I, Cindy, leave Jay and Jaime all the great times and memories I've had in high school.

We, Stephanie, Lisa, and Cindy, leave our booth at the diner to the next three good gossipers.

We, Jody, Elizabeth, and Kim, leave all the dexatrim and slimfast in the world to Laurel.

I, Mike Kyle, leave all my musical talent to Mrs. Schonberger in the hope that some day she'll be more than just an accomplished piano player.

We, the secretaries of — the main office, leave all the seniors our late passes and best wishes.

I, Tonya, leave Heather a lonely ride to school every morning.

I, Tonya, leave Mrs. Blythe all of my rays of sunshine.

We, Regina and Antonella, leave Todd S. and Justin F. all the good times and memories we had throughout the year.

I, Regina, leave all my high school memories to my classmates and teachers.

I, Stephanie DeClement, leave my sister Jaime DeClement all my good times and great memories of high school.

We, Stephanie DeClement and Cindy Smolenski, leave behind all of our crazy talks and critical comments to the people they were about.

We, Kristine, Lisa, Adam, Brenden, Tonya, Dave and Antonella, leave Mrs. Blythe one painting session taught by Bob Ross.

I, Antonella, leave all the memories throughout the years- especially the times with my closest friends.

We, Mrs. Ursone's 7th period Italian class, leave all the good times we had throughout the year of 89-90.

We, the Powder Puff football team, leave our fantastic teamwork to next years class so they can beat Cheshire again (32-16).

We, the Powder Puff Football team, leave many thanks to everyone who made it happen - especially our coaches.

I, Chris Fletcher, leave the good and bad I've shared with friends to anyone who cares.

We, Chris Fletcher and Justin Rubino, leave Coach DeMayo all the sprints we dogged at football practice.

I, Justin Rubino, leave the media staff all the great movie productions I did.

I, Aunti Squaw, leave Momma Squaw, Little Squaw, and Sister Squaw, all the good times they will have in senior year.

I, Diana, leave Mrs. Blythe a pair of ear plugs, a blindfold, and a muzzle so she doesn't have to hear my excuses, see me waste valuable time, and so that no one has to listen to her screeching complaints!

I, Robyn, leave all my thanks to Nick and Troy for getting my act together and for being great friends.

We, Carrie and Maria, leave Raff and Chris their "date" and lots of luck in their future years.

We, Maria and Carrie, leave our memories of our many adventures - in the summer of '90 but don't worry, there are more to come.

We, Lynn, Maria, Jenn, and Carrie, leave our fun and exciting Columbus Day Weekend.

We, Maria - and Jennifer, leave Mr. Prez and Marilyn - a.k.a. Mom and Dad - our complaint list and many thanks.

We, Maria - and Jennifer, leave next year's cheerleading captains a bottle of tylenol and lots of luck!

I, Lynn, leave my sister Lisa best of luck next year. Remember the car is mine!

I, S.G., leave the other S.G., some new S.G.'s to fall in love with (but not as great, of course).

CLASS WILL

I, Elizabeth Perry, leave my attitude to all those who put up with it.

We, Kim and Liz, leave all the talks on the birds and the bees.

I, Kim Wielis, leave the lift in my locker for the next owner.

I, Chrissy Meyers, leave Amy Dellamura all the phone calls, change and conversations to anyone else who would be crazy enough to do it.

We, Cheri Alfonso and Chrissy Meyers, do hereby leave.

We, Amy DellaMura and Chrissy Meyers, leave Kim Eckels the basic shape of a dog.

I, Cheri Alfonso, leave Chrissy Meyers, all the open doors so everyone can see in.

I, Cheri Alfonso, leave my sister Renee all the good times in NHHS.

I, Renea, leave Mike Drago my brown and orange prom dress!

We, Carrie and Renea, leave all the girls on the track team our schemes of skipping practice.

I, Carrie, leave Renea all those peanut butter crackers we ate!

I, Carrie, leave the best of luck to all the girls on the swim team next year.

I, Chrissy, leave Bruce "the famous X".

I, Chrissy, leave Cheri the drop-offs.

We, Amy And Chrissy, leave all of our walks in the hallways to anyone who wants to walk that much.

I, Chrissy, leave Amy the vandalization points in North Haven.

I, Sandi Goldfeld, leave to my English teachers, my now completed papers, and to my language teachers, my then completed papers ... in their correct language.

I, Carol Gilchrist, leave Uncle Lou, Aunt Roseanne, Mark and Dave all of the laughter they had at my expense!

We, Erin Pallato and Kristen Carroll, leave the first day of school to the North Haven Police department.

We, Kristen Carroll and Erin Pallatto, leave to anyone the knowledge that we got away with more than they know.

We, Kristen Carroll and Erin Pallatto, leave the key to the lavs to anyone who might need them.

We, Erin Pallatto and Kristen Carroll, leave the halls to anyone who needs as much exercise as we did.

I, Carol Gilchrist, leave a lifetime supply of orange Tic-Tacs to all my friends because I won't be around to supply them anymore.

We, Krista, Anne, Jen, and Alicia, leave behind our confusing love triangles.

We, the twins, Bridget and Cindi, leave Dave and Kevin our fond farewells.

We, Bridget, Chrissy, Donna, and Kim — hereby leave!

We, Bridget and Kim, leave our little sisters this school.

I, Donna, leave my sister the chance to make some wonderful memories.

We, Bridget, Donna, and Lisa, leave Ms. Adanti our "talent".

We, Donna and Christy, leave our loud mouths and obnoxious comments.

I, Krista, leave Jen Clinton our hilarious times at the diner with Trippy, her friend Rolly, her cousin Polly, and her Aunt Smolly!

We, Jen, Anne, and Alicia, leave Krista four new tires for the ones she wore out on the night of the "chase"!

We, Krista, Anne, Jen, and Alicia, leave our "available apartment" to anyone in need of a good time!

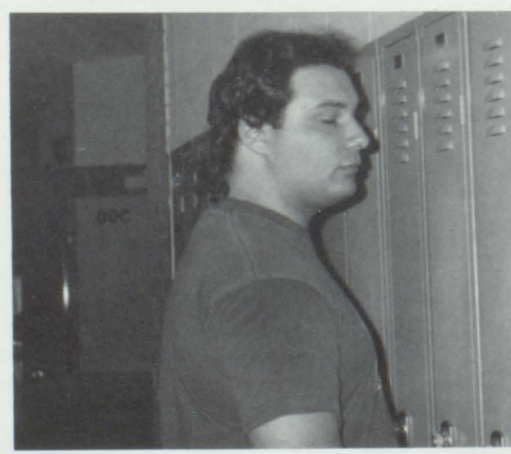

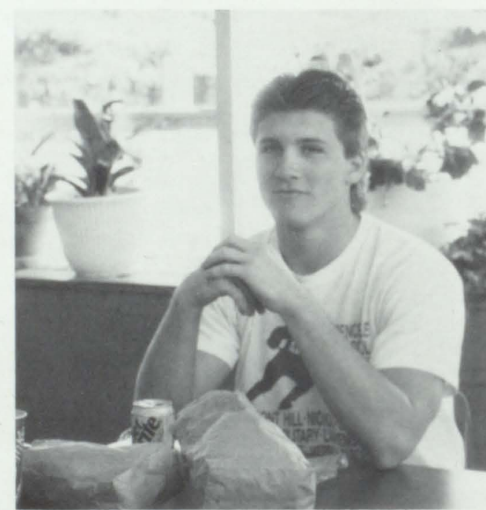

We, Krista, Jen, and Alicia, leave one weekend for a date with Chris, Mark, and Raff.

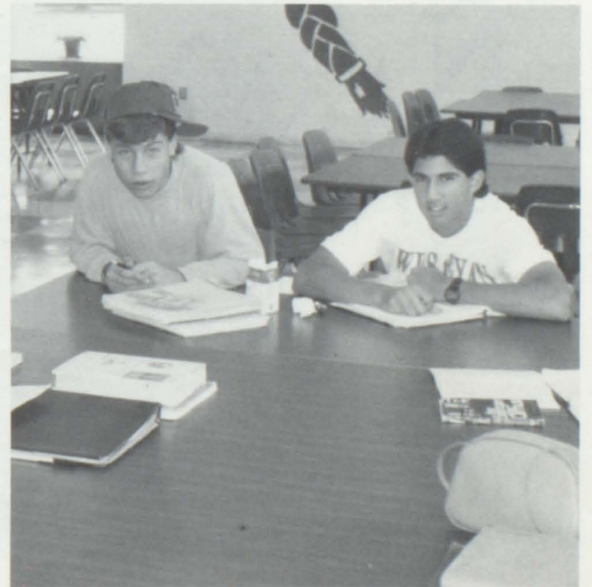

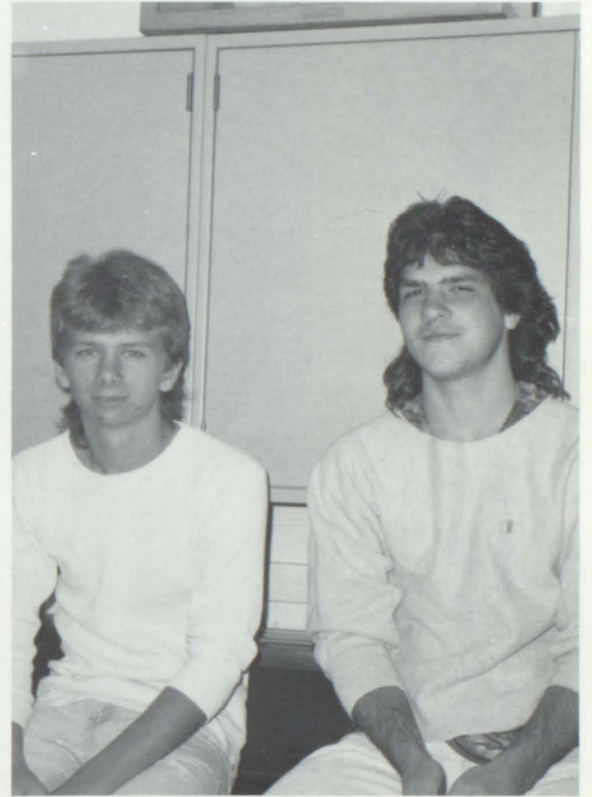

I, Krista, leave Jen the appealing aroma of "Rocky". Be grateful, since I'm the only one who said yes!!

We, Krista, Anne, and Alicia, leave the roaches and stains at the "motel" to be with new prom dates this year!

We, The Class of 1991, leave our sincere gratitude and appreciation to everyone who has made our past four years at North Haven High School an exciting and memorable adventure; and to all future classes of North Haven High School, we leave our best wishes for a successful, fulfilling, and unforgettable high school experience.

NORTH HAVEN HIGH SCHOOL

Faculty Example

Stuart Elliot, Principal

To the Class of 1991:

Your class has given us great cause for optimism. In every measure of what it means to be an effective school you have excelled. My hope is that you have learned some "stuff" and something about yourself while you have been here. I have learned a lot these past four years and thank you for being a part of the "teaching." Together, I think we have helped continue the tradition that North Haven High School is a "good place to be."

Finally, my hope is that you will look at your yearbook some twenty years from now and feel that you both "gave" and "got" during your three years here.

Thank you for continuing the tradition of excellence. Best of luck in your future.

REFLECTIONS OF OUR YEARS

Hien Nguyen will be the only person in the entire world to have won the Publisher's Clearing House Sweepstakes.

Tonya Shell, a docile homemaker, will be forever 'cleaning house', until one day, she refuses to make dinner and joins the Navy Seals!!

Jascin Leonardo will be married to a gorgeous red head named Jason, have 2.4 kids, a dog, a cat, and a house in Nantucket with a white, picket fence.

Lisa Schnabel will take over the starring role in the next Little Caesar's Pizza commercial, "Pizza Pizza!"

Adele Adinolfi will own an Australian pawn shop.

Becky DeAngelo will join the Peace Corps, conquer world hunger and war, and solve all environmental problems single-handedly.

Krista Yentsch will be married to Bruce Hemstock, have two kids, and will live in a nice house with a Doberman Pinscher and a Bulldog.

Alicia Borrelli will have a syndicated T.V. show teaching people with no ability to cook exquisite meals.

Michael Drago will be a famous body-builder on the warpath for anyone who ever called him "pausity".

Brian Melillo will work for a cartoon industry making the scary sounds for monster cartoons.

Krista Camputaro will be blissfully happy living the life of an Italian Princess, while still maintaining an important career proving she had been, and would always be, able to do it all.

Adele Adinolfi will lose her accent.

Tammi Morris will be married to Steve Testa, drive a Saab, have five kids and a Husky.

Robyn Letkowski will still claim to be on a diet, but still go to McDonald's twice a day.

Bryant Chesney will be living in a city with Carolyn Snow and hiking in the woods on the weekends.

Mark Testagrossa will be designing computer programs.

Beth Gustavson will have had an out-of-body experience, and will have written numerous books on her experiences with other life forms.

In 20 years, Deanna MacNeil will be just as mentally confused as she is now.

Louise Perfetti will be a successful lawyer in New York with 50 pairs of shoes for each of her 375 outfits.

Lisa Schnabel will be the next Malcom Forbes.

Karen Lobasz and Jennifer Amarante will be following Depeche Mode all over the world.

Carol Gilchrist will be lost somewhere on Middletown Ave., looking for her Orange Tic-Tac manufacturing company.

Adele Adinolfi will become a crocodile wrestler down-under.

Valerie Morgan will enter the Olympics and take the gold.

Becky DeAngelo will be living in the Arctic, saving the ozone and the world.

Tonya Shell will become the next Mary Kay, and her mother will buy from her.

Kim Wielis will be perfecting the finer points of serving frozen yogurt while trying to find the perfect guy for every girl she ever met.

Hien Nguyen will sing Dites-Moi (loudly) and dance while doing so.

Sandi Goldfeld will finally figure out what information to study for a test without calling her friends to find out. She will learn this amazing feat at UNH.

Dirk Johnson will be the starting center forward for the U.S. National Soccer Team in the '94 and '98 World Cup.

Tim Heidmann will still be a shepherd.

Chris Costelli will be D.J. for W.K.N.G.-the 24 hour Elvis station.

Mark Testagrossa, after graduating from college, will go on to Graduate School at MIT. He will also host his own math show on PBS.

Bryant Chesney will drop out of college, travel all over the world leaving behind a legacy at every stop he makes. Finally, he will settle down in Colorado and become a ski instructor.

Paul Lombardi will still be in High School!

Jascin Leonardo will be the first "Rockette" with red, bobbed hair and a curfew.

Anthony Maiorino will be a T.V. star.

Aaron Briggs will be sleeping.

Chris Fletcher will be President of the United States.

Ron Colavolpe will be a world famous math scholar after marketing the ever purposeful "SOHCAHTOA" method.

Krista Yentsch will be married to Bruce Hemstock and still vacationing in Virginia Beach every July.

Tammi Morris will be driving around the world in a Saab with a Simoan Husky trying to find a rich guy so she doesn't have to work at Wendy's anymore.

Robyn Letkowski will be married, have gone through 20 different cars and will finally hold a job for a long period of time.

Antonella Vertucci will be a rich and famous hairstylist with a chain of salons.

Dave Roberts will be mumbling for NASA.

Loi Nguyen will still be a B.D.

Justin Rubino will still be late.

Brian Connors will be practicing law.

Anne Franceschet will be the Queen of the Nursery school market, opening nation-wide franchises.

Sal Giamo will be a famous author after his novel 101 Reasons Why You Wish You Were Italian hits the best-seller list.

Krista Camputaro and Jennifer Croteau will be coaching the volleyball team because someone had finally realized the job needed to be done correctly and professionally.

BLOOD ON THE SAND

A soldier lies face down in the desert sand.
 His lifeless body a contorted joke of what it once was.
 He used to walk ... talk ... breathe; no more.
 The sands and wind and heat will eat away at him 'til his skin rots and his bones show.
 Both sides will glorify his death, saying it was for the "greater good".
 He was young; He once had a future. A bullet took it away.
 In the small town where he came from, emotions will run high.
 Some will think him a her; others, a victim.
 Either way, they will feel it several times over.
 Some say he will go to heaven; still others say he will go to hell.
 In reality, he will go into a pine box.
 But for now he lies in the sand, being fed to the worms like he was to the slaughter.

CLASS ADVISORS

For the past three years, three special women have made a remarkable difference in the lives of the 1991 graduates. They are class advisors Mrs. Margery Halleran, Mrs. Robin Hickerson and Mrs. Carla Stockton.

They were there every day to meet challenges for us individually and as a class. They gave us support, advice and guidance. They became our teachers, but more importantly, they became our friends.

Their endless supply of enthusiasm led the way to successful fundraisers, fun-filled high school activities, and special memories. We are eternally grateful for their thoughtfulness, time and loyalty.

Thank You for the difference you have made in our lives. We will miss you!

The Class of 1991

Mrs. Cukrowski: We are very grateful to you for sharing your room with us! Thank you for caring about SACHEM '91!

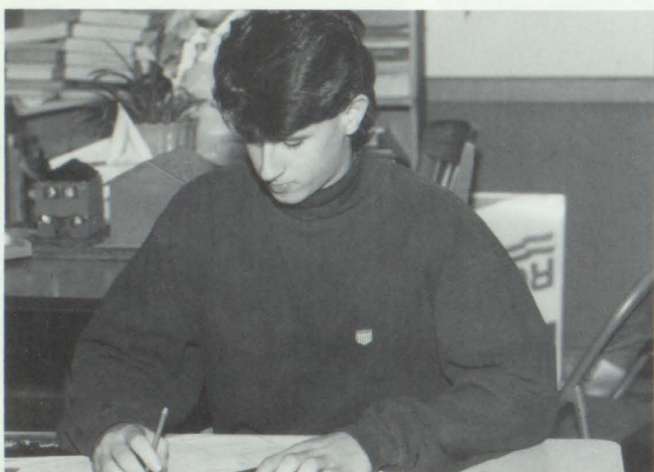

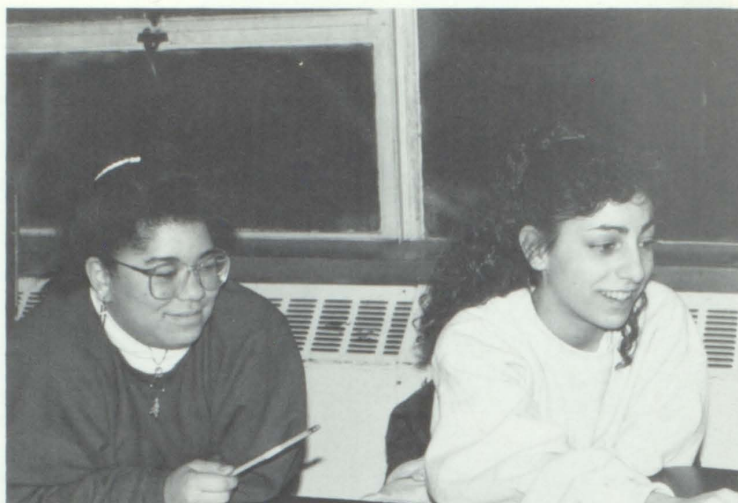

SACHEM FINANCIAL ADVISOR

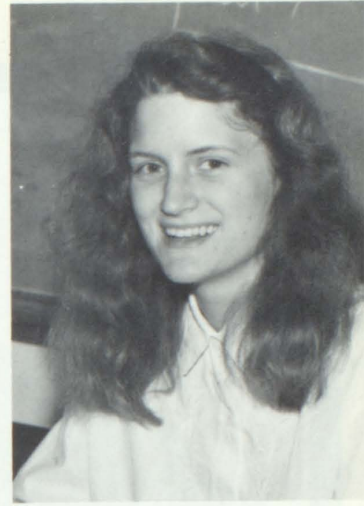

Ms. Haynes: Your spirit and organization aided all of our financial needs! Your experience and calmness helped us so much. Thank you for being an essential part of SACHEM '91. We will miss you.

We did it! "Reflections" is a tremendous success. It was very rewarding to see the SACHEM '91 staff work together to make this special book. We made our way through conflicts, deadlines and layout after layout!! Ms. Feinn, Thank You. This book would not have been possible without you. Have fun next year; we will miss you. Ms Haynes- you are fantastic. Thanks for your endless help and support! Mrs. Cukrowski- you let us use your room as our "headquarters", much thanks. Mr. Elliot, Ms. Brozek and Mr. Sbabo- Thank You. The tremendous trio- our advisors. Each one of you made such a difference. For three years, you never let us down. Mrs. Halleran your practicality and great ideas always brought success. Ms. Stockton- in the drama department we could always count on you. Your one-on-one ways of caring never went unnoticed. Mrs. Hickerson- your big heart and leadership abilities were a rolemodel for us all. Best of luck with your new baby. You were great advisors. Thank you Bob from Jostens and everyone at Art Rich.

The staff- you guys were incredible! Despite hectic schedules, you made this book what it is! Sandi G- where did you get your energy? Typing, copying, layouts- you did it all! Editors- Carol G- you were so efficient and helpful. Matt M and Carolyn S- thanks, great job. (Did we ever find out what an academics editor really does?) Chris F and Krista C page after page- your enthusiasm came through! Jascin- nice shots, thanks. Carrie S, Maria C and Lynn W- another unforgettable trio! Dave T- your dedication provided much motivation. Photographers- Kim W, Jenn F, Kim J, Gene M, Chrissy M, Ruth S- "A picture says a 1000 words", Thanks for capturing our times on film! Renea A, Lynne D, Greg F, Tonya G, Kristen M, Dave M- you all helped in so many areas! Anne F, Beth G, Deanna M- you all helped in so many areas! Thank you. Graphic Artists- Giacomo T, Antonella V, and Diana V- good luck in the future with your artistic talents. Alicia B, Andy B, Sherilyn C, Jon B, Stephanie D, Regina D, Sean G, Jody A, Chrissy G, Tonya J, Cindy P, Penny S, Sarah S, Tonya S, Krista V, Louise PMei L, and Susan W- thanks for your ideas and help.

You have all enhanced these pages. Thank you (again) for caring and contributing. Be proud of your accomplishments.

On behalf of the yearbook, I would like to thank the teachers and staff. You have prepared us for whatever lies ahead. Others can not compare. We will miss you!

To our Parents and Families- What a great three years! The accomplishments, endeavors and smiles that took place at N.H.H.S. were only possible because of the love, support, and encouragement that we received outside of school. Thank you.

The Class of '91. It seems it took "forever" to get here. For so long it was just a year, a number on a calendar. However, as time passed, it became our identity and we became one. 1991.

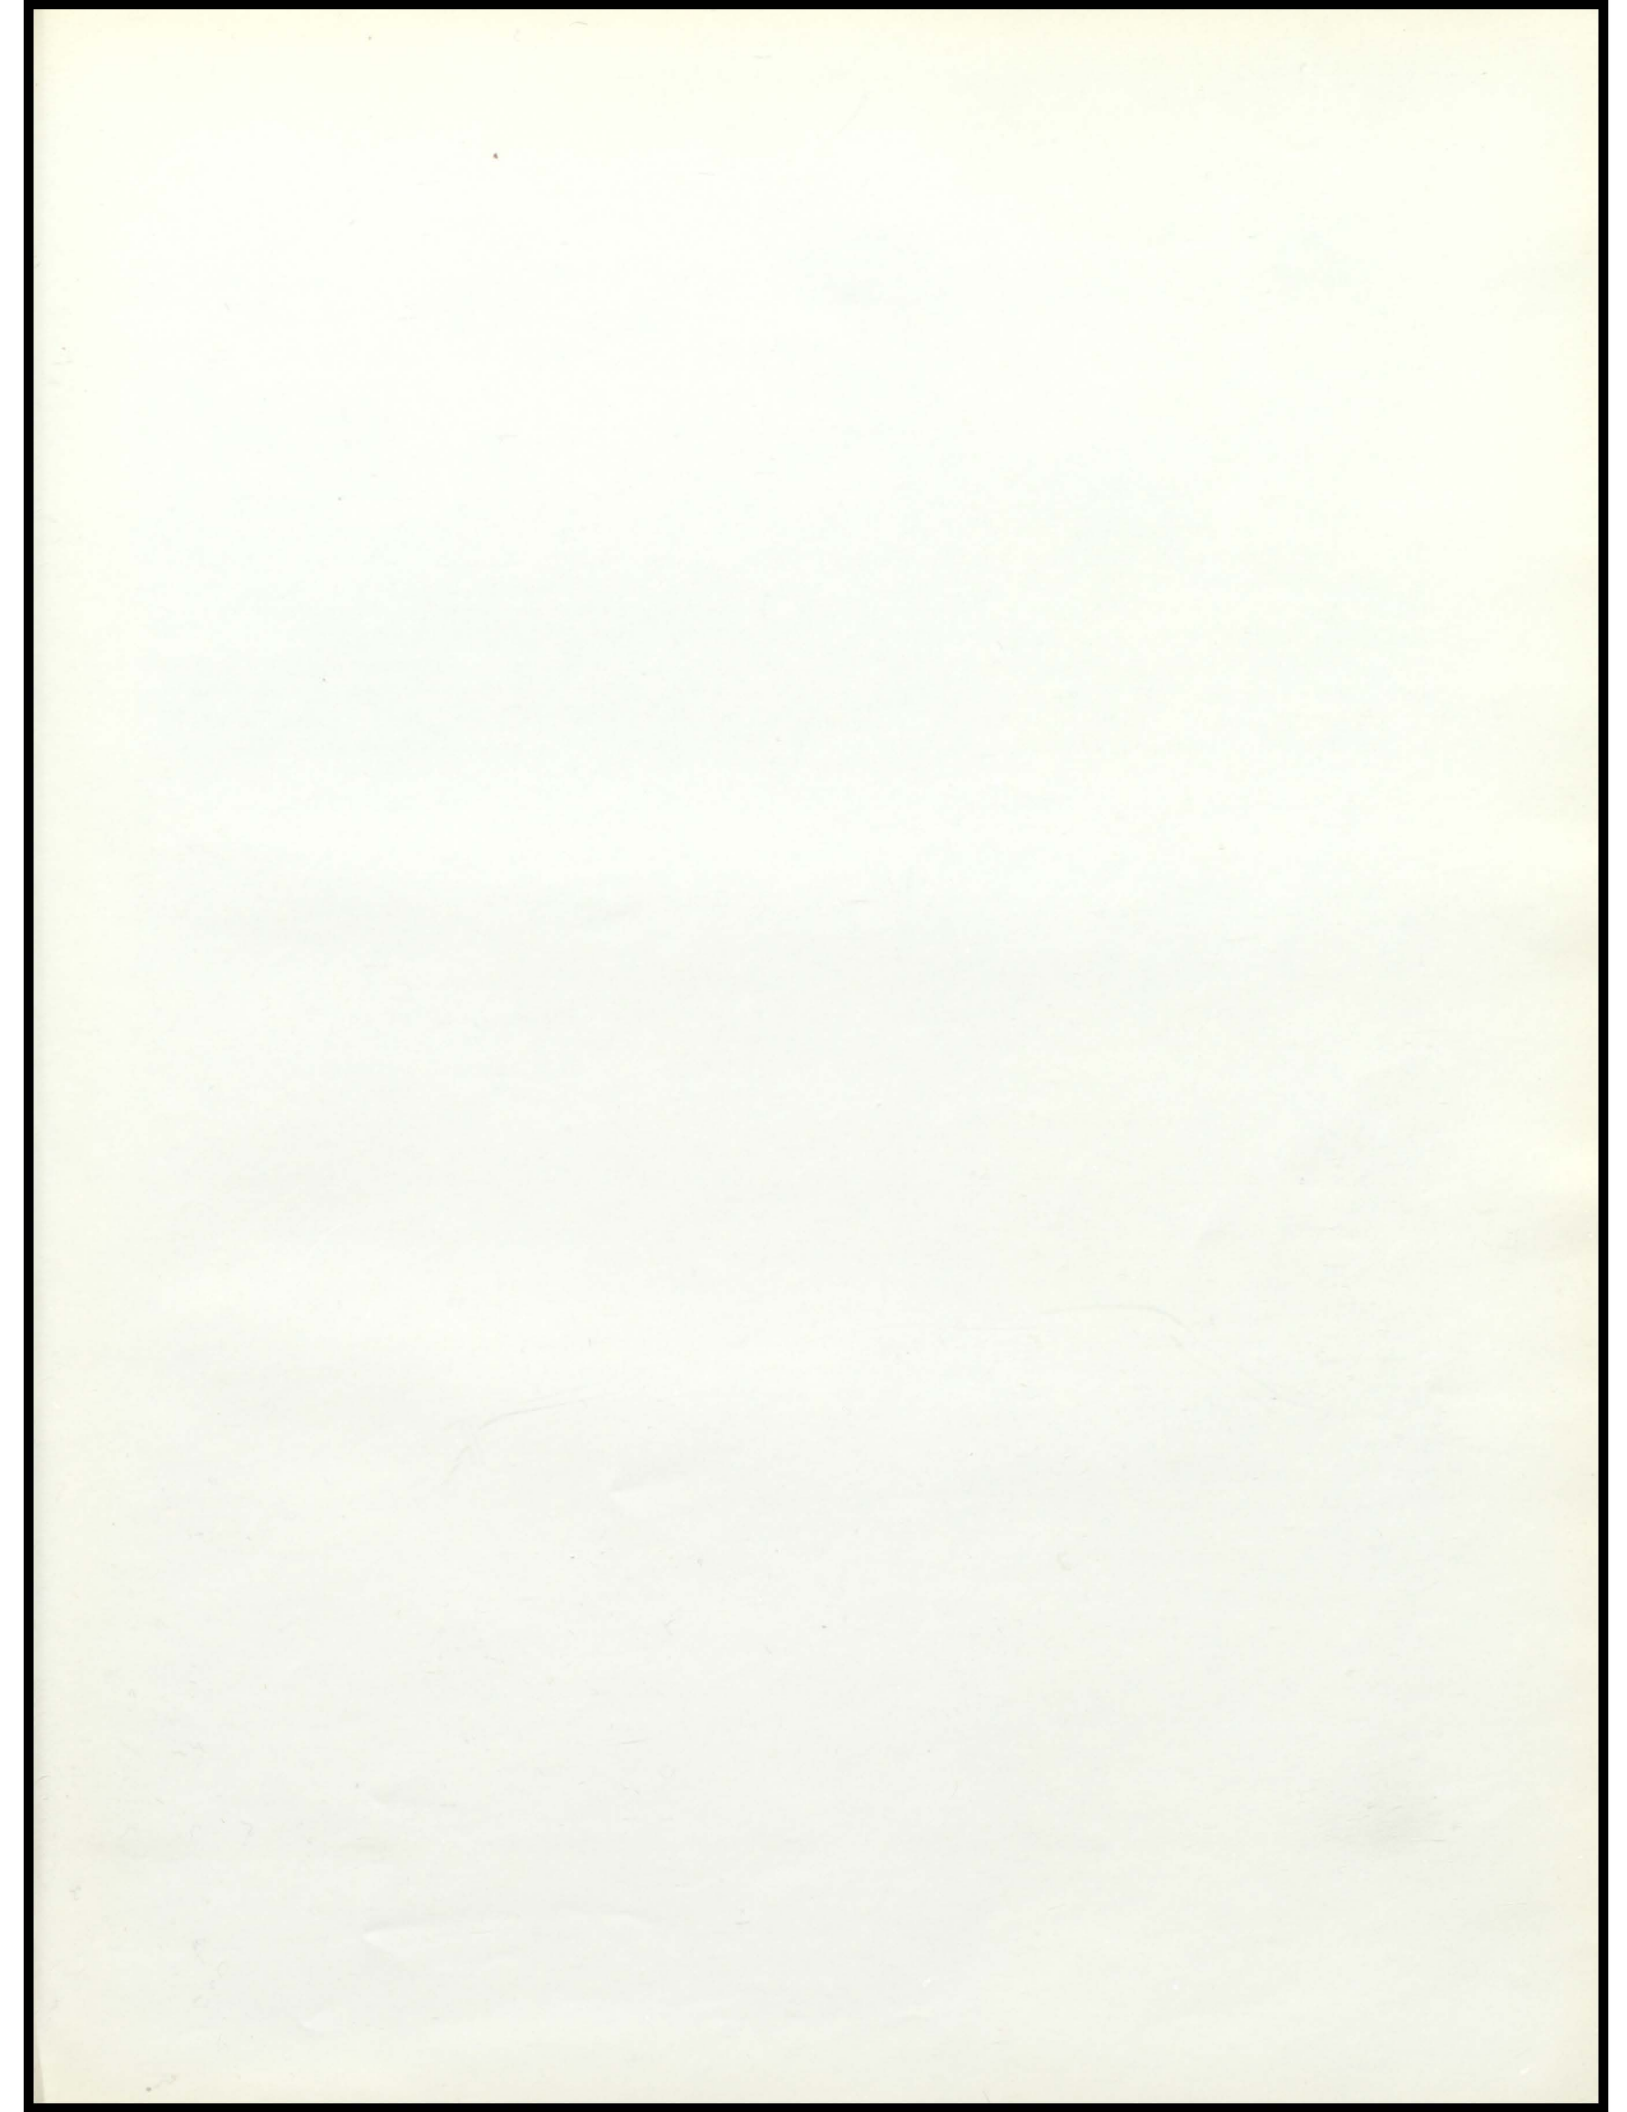

I sincerely hope that as you turn the pages today, tomorrow and in twenty years that you will be reminded of wonderful memories. N.H.H.S. is "reflected" throughout. There are more than pictures within these covers. There is laughter, tears, failure, success and friendship. Always remember our days together and know that we have made our mark on North Haven High School. 1991 Graduates- Go out and change the world! Never underestimate your abilities.

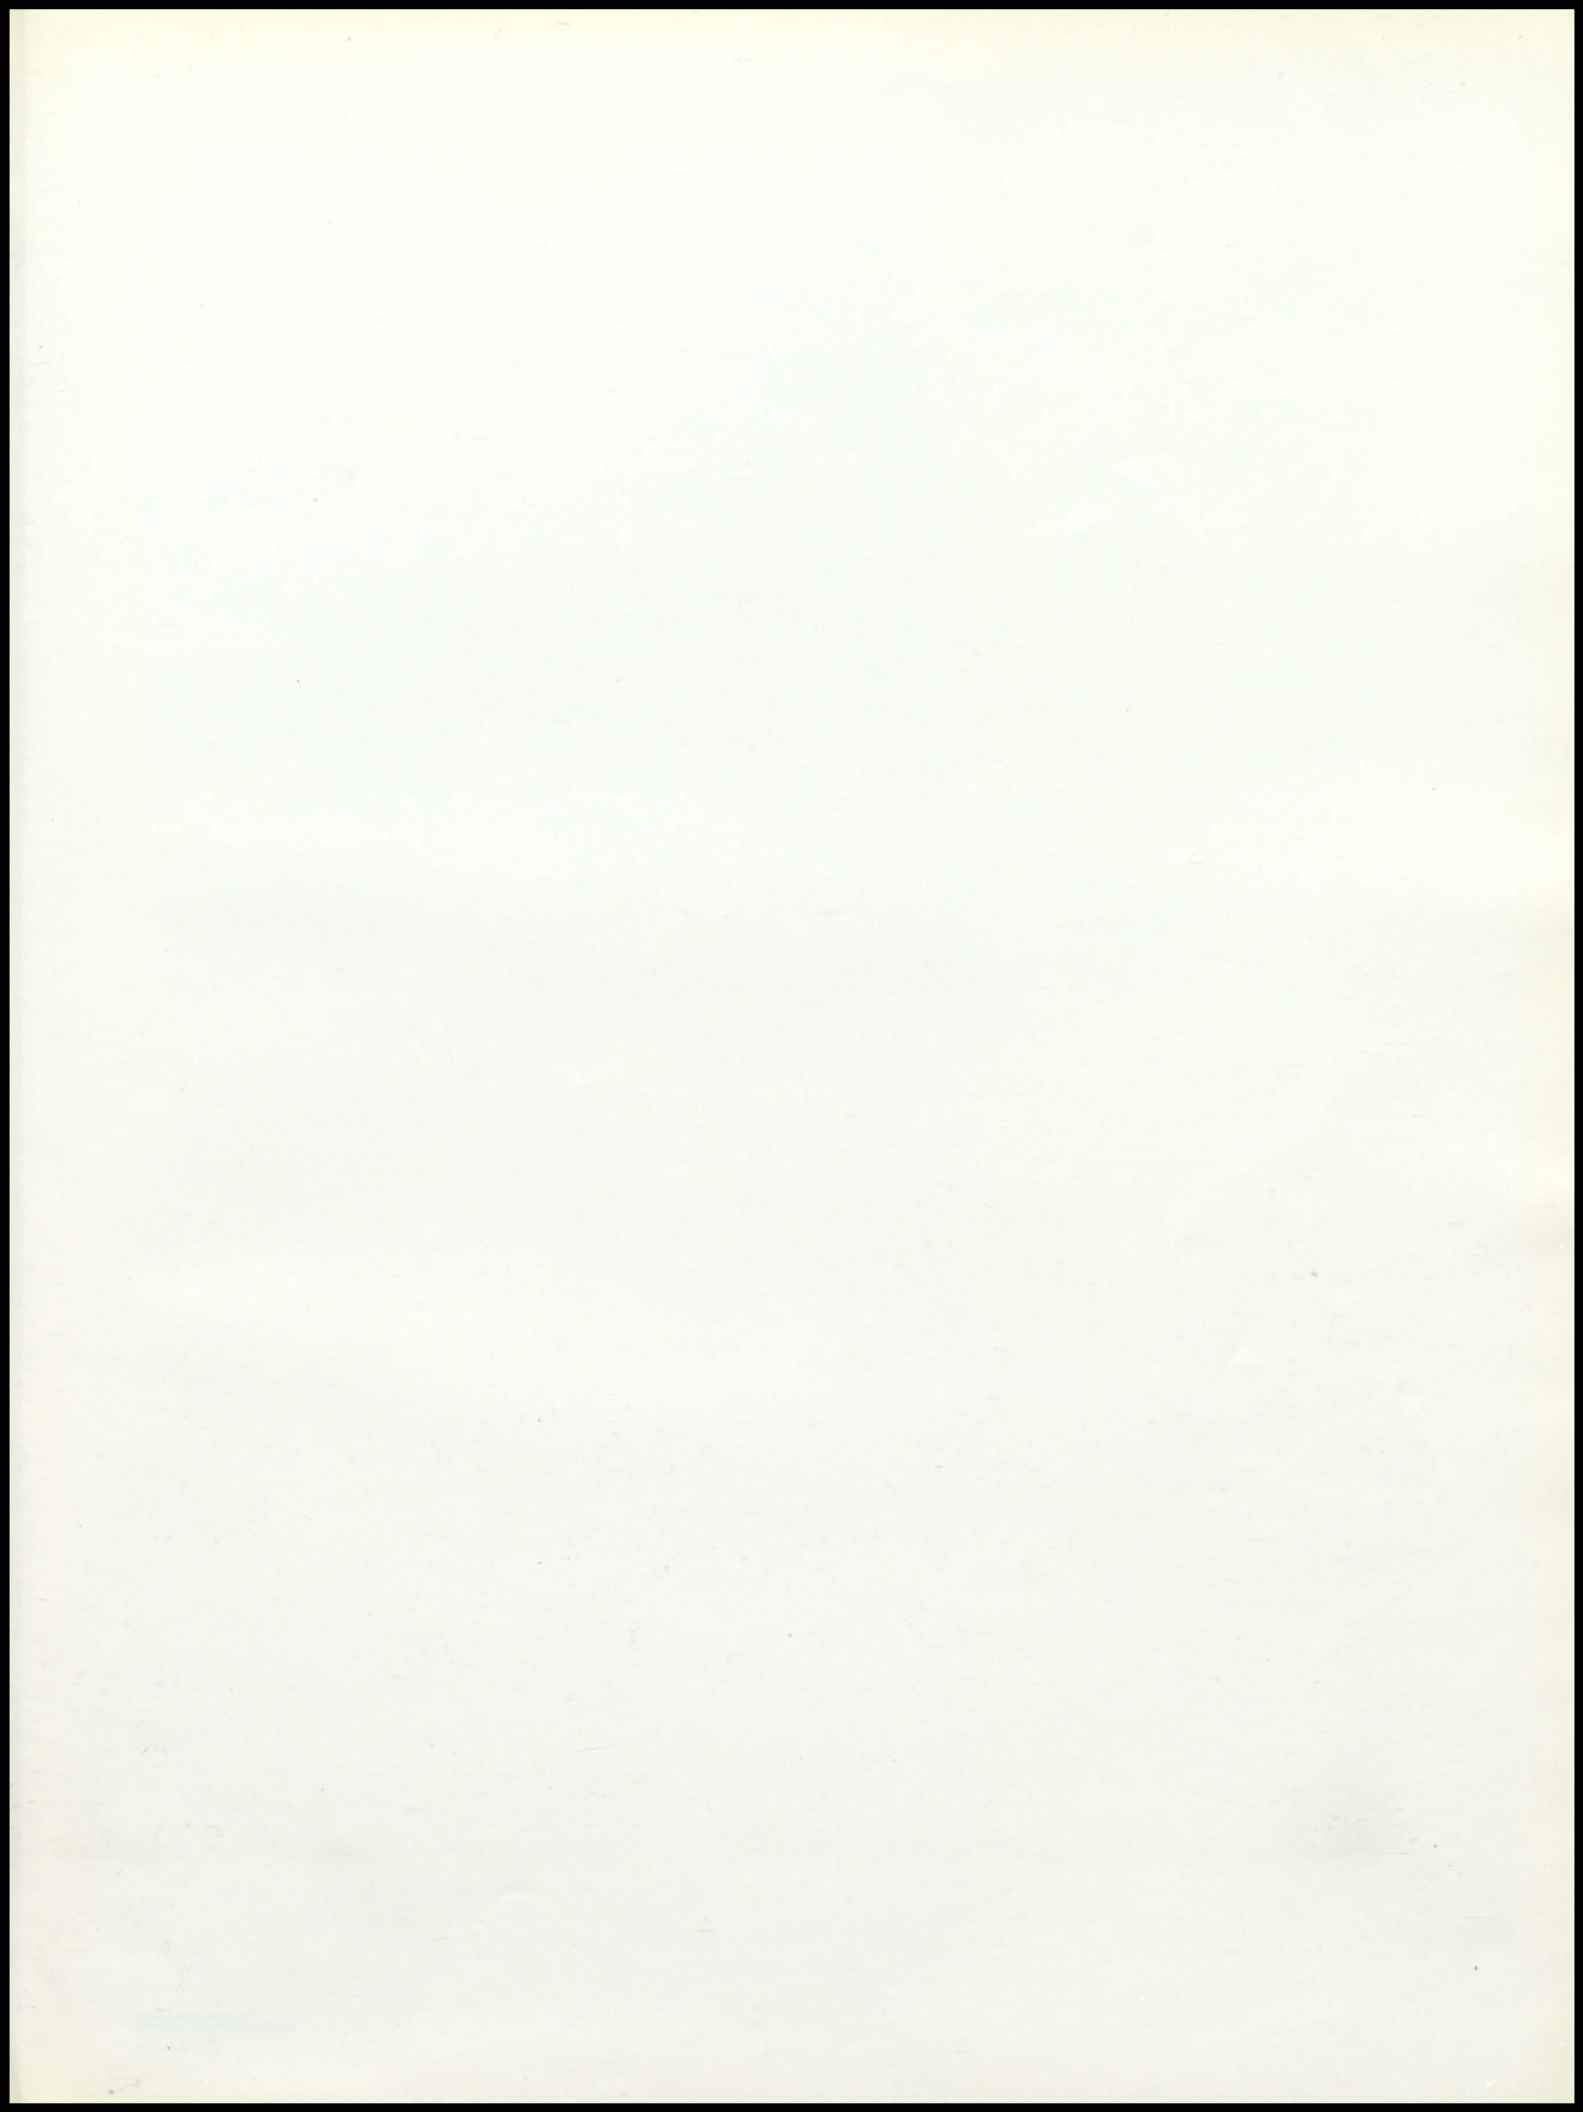

As for today, when we sign each others books, take an extra second to look around. We have learned more than Spanish roots and trig equations within this building. We have learned about people, our selves, and about feelings. Treasure "Reflections" always, and take it along with forever friendships and precious moments of our days at North Haven High School.

It was a great pleasure to work on SACHEM 91. Health, happiness and good luck in your futures.

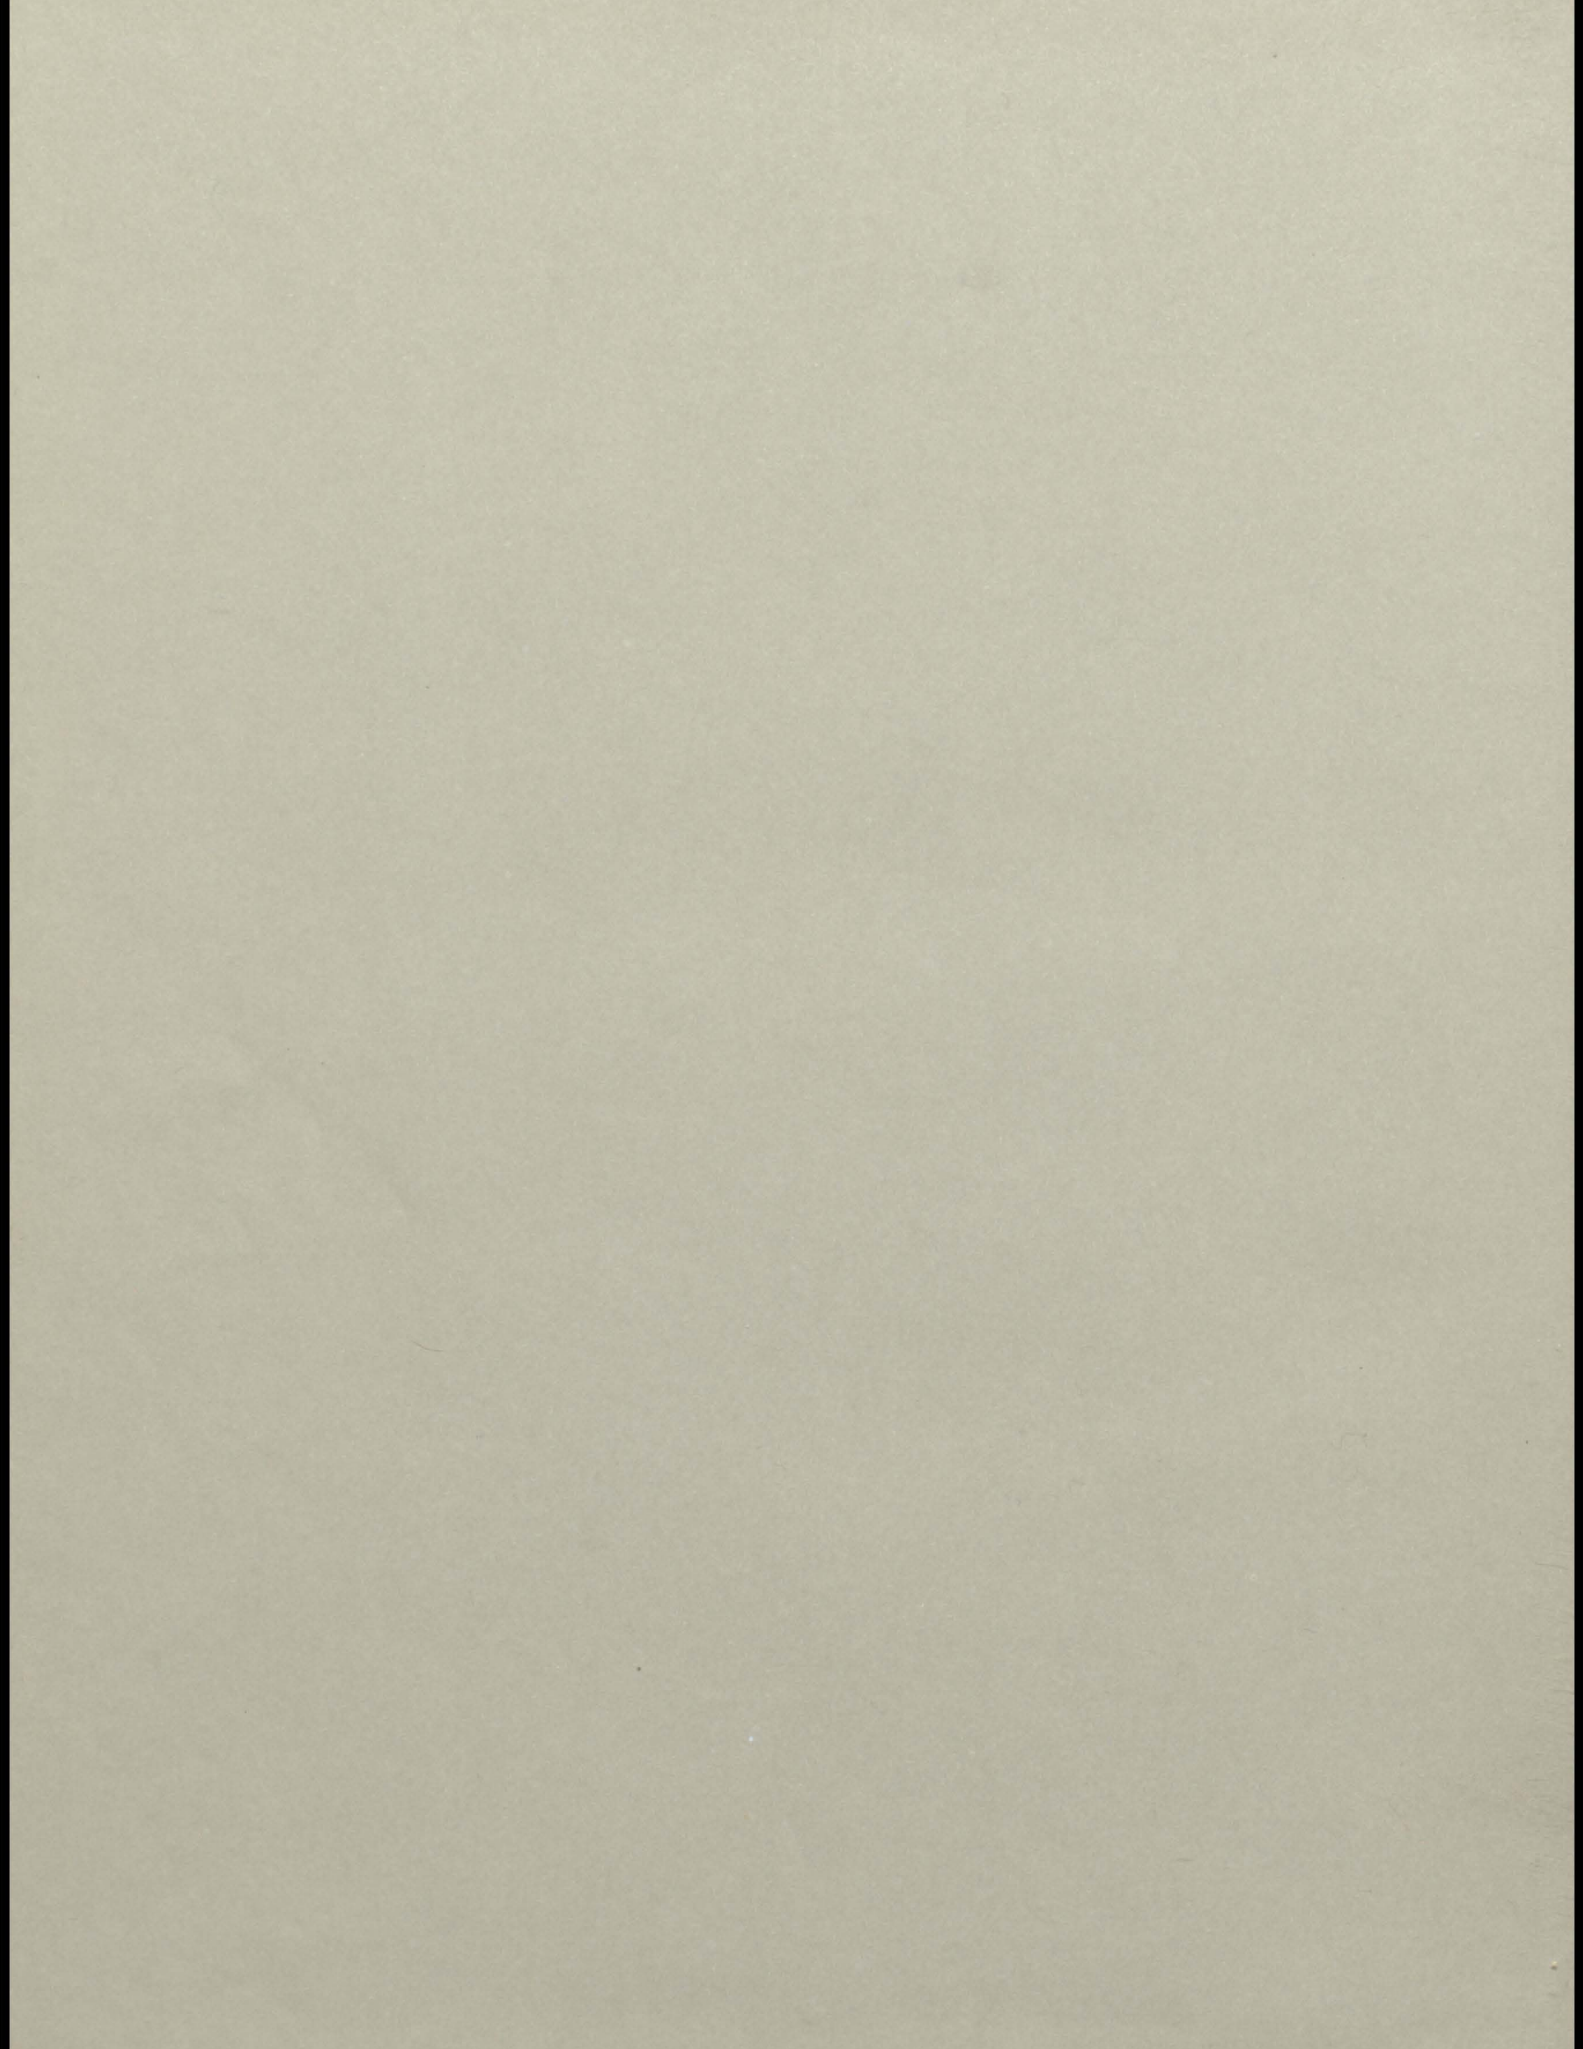

Sincerely,
Jennifer Croteau
