ROMANCE BOOK CLUB

DAISY JONES & THE SIX

By Taylor Jenkins Reid
 Wednesday, November 17
 6:30 pm

Everyone knows Daisy Jones & The Six, but nobody knows the real reason why they split at the absolute height of their popularity...until now. Daisy is a girl coming of age in L.A. in the late sixties, sneaking into clubs on the Sunset Strip, sleeping with rock stars, and dreaming of singing at the Whisky a Go-Go. By the time she's twenty, her voice is getting noticed, and she has the kind of heedless beauty that makes people do crazy things. Another band getting noticed is The Six, led by the brooding Billy Dunne. On the eve of their first tour, his girlfriend Camila finds out she's pregnant, and with the pressure of impending fatherhood and fame, Billy goes a little wild on the road. Daisy and Billy cross paths when a producer realizes the key to supercharged success is to put the two together. What happens next will become the stuff of legend.

Facilitated by local resident and romance book blogger Victoria Hine. This program will be in-person. Online access via Zoom is also available. Registration required.

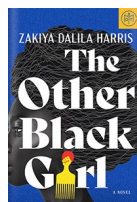

THURSDAY MORNING BOOK CLUB

THE OTHER BLACK GIRL

By Zakiya Dalila Harris
 Thursday, November 18
 10:30 AM

Twenty-six-year-old editorial assistant Nella Rogers is tired of being the only Black employee at Wagner Books. Fed up with the isolation and microaggressions, she's thrilled when Harlem-born and bred Hazel starts working in the cubicle beside hers. They've only just started comparing natural hair care regimens, though, when a string of uncomfortable events elevates Hazel to Office Darling, and Nella is left in the dust. Then the notes begin to appear on Nella's desk: LEAVE WAGNER. NOW. It's hard to believe Hazel is behind these hostile messages. But as Nella starts to spiral and obsess over the sinister forces at play, she soon realizes that there's a lot more at stake than just her career.

This program will be in-person. Online access via Zoom is also available. Registration required.

A DEATH OF NO IMPORTANCE

By Mariah Fredericks
 Thursday, November 18
 6:30 PM

New York City, 1910. Invisible until she's needed, Jane Prescott has perfected the art of serving as a ladies' maid to the city's upper echelons. When she takes up a position with a family dismissed by the city's elite as "new money," Jane realizes that while she may not have financial privilege she, understands the rules of high society. The family causes further outrage when their daughter Charlotte becomes engaged to notorious playboy Norrie. But when Norrie is found murdered at a party, Jane realizes she's a woman no one sees, but who witnesses everything and therefore has the tools to solve his murder.

This program will be in-person. Online access via Zoom is also available. Registration required.

FRIDAY MORNING MOVIE

ARLINGTON FIELD OF HONOR

Friday, November 19
 10:30 am

Once little more than a potter's field, Arlington National Cemetery has become a national shrine and treasury of American history. Discover how this revered site came to be, and how it serves as the final resting place for both the famous and obscure, from John F. Kennedy to the Unknown Soldier. Through rare archival footage and captivating, true-life accounts, experience the moving stories of heroes and gain a privileged glimpse into the daily activities and official rituals of the dedicated staff. From fallen soldiers and daring explorers to political leaders, the hallowed history of Arlington reveals a powerful portrait of this iconic and venerated landmark. Rated: NR, Runtime: 60 min.

NEW - LIBRARY BIG READ FIVE TOTAL STRANGERS By Natalie D. Richards Thursday, December 9 6:30 PM

Join us to discuss Five Total Strangers, part of the worldwide BIG READ, the world's largest digital book club. From November 1-15, library card holders can borrow the eBook and eAudiobook for free without waiting by downloading the Libby app or visiting the library's website. (Print copies will also be available.)

When Mira flies home to spend Christmas with her mother in Pittsburgh, a record-breaking blizzard results in a cancelled layover. Desperate to get to her grief-ridden mother in the wake of a family death, Mira hitches a ride with a group of friendly college kids who were on her initial flight. As the drive progresses and weather conditions become more treacherous, Mira realizes that the four other passengers she's stuck in the car with don't actually know one another. Soon, they're not just dealing with heavy snowfall and ice-slick roads, but the fact that somebody will stop at nothing to ensure their trip ends in a deadly disaster.

This program will be in-person.
Online access via Zoom is also available. Registration required.

MUST-SEE MOVIE THE FATHER Monday, December 13 2:00 PM

Anthony is 80, mischievous, living defiantly alone and rejecting the caretakers that his daughter, Anne, encouragingly introduces. Yet help is also becoming a necessity for Anne; she can't make daily visits anymore and Anthony's grip on reality is unraveling. As we experience the ebb and flow of his memory, how much of his own identity and past can Anthony cling to? How does Anne cope as she grieves the loss of her father, while he still lives and breathes before her? THE FATHER warmly embraces real life, through loving reflection upon the vibrant human condition; heart-breaking and poignant nestling in the truth of our own lives. Rated: PG-13, Runtime: 97 min.

MYSTERY BOOK CLUB KISSING CHRISTMAS GOODBYE By M.C. Beaton Thursday, December 16 6:30 pm

Agatha Raisin is bored. Her detective agency in the Cotswolds is thriving, but she'll scream if she has to deal with another missing cat or dog. Only two things seem to offer potential excitement: the upcoming Christmas festivities and her ex, James Lacey. When a wealthy widow hires Agatha because she's convinced a member of her family is trying to kill her, Agatha is intrigued—especially when the widow drops dead after high tea at the manor house. Agatha sets out to find the murderer, all the while managing a pretty, teenage trainee who makes her feel old and planning for a picture-perfect Christmas, with James, all the trimmings, and, perhaps even snow.

This program will be in-person.

ROMANCE BOOK CLUB CHRISTMAS WITH DIXIE by Darlene Tallman Wednesday, December 29 6:30 pm

Dixie James moved cross country with her beloved dog, Amos. Determined to heal after the unexpected deaths of her parents, she is grateful that her longtime friend, Annie, still lives in Cherokee. When Amos gets sick unexpectedly, Annie once again comes to the rescue, giving her the number for the local vet.

Isaac Hamilton is lonely. He's also overworked and at the brink of exhaustion, being the only local vet. He never expected his world to turn upside down when he met Dixie. Yet, he's drawn to her and despite his chaotic schedule, he makes time to get to know her and it's not long before he realizes that she's the one for him.

Wedding bells ring but when faced with a tragedy, will they spend all their Christmases together?

Facilitated by local resident and romance book blogger Victoria Hine.

Ages 6-11yrs

Join Mr. Joe for a fun filled afternoon of Zoom Recess. This program encourages kids to get up, move, and be silly. We will play hilarious games, clown around with props and laugh a LOT! In this 'Special Edition' of Zoom Recess, we will also be making a craft together where you will create your very own spoon puppets.

Program offered online via Zoom.
 Registration required and begins one week prior to pickup date. Supplies will be provided and must be picked up prior to the program to fully participate.

TODDLER TIME

Monday, December 13

10:30 am

Ages 2-3yrs

Come learn AND have fun! Parent/Caregivers and their toddlers will interact with books, learn fingerplays, and sing. We will be using scarves during this program! Please have something ready for your little one to wave around in the air. It can be a washcloth, a pillowcase or even an old t-shirt. Anything that can be waved and crumpled and tossed up in the air will work!

Program offered online via Zoom.
 Registration required.

TWEEN PAINT NIGHT Monday, December 13

6:00 pm

Ages 10-14

No painting experience is necessary to join! Using a blank canvas, paint, and your imagination, Miss Lindsey will teach you step by step to paint a pair of beautiful cardinals in a winter scene. Paint and supplies will be provided. *NOTE: Acrylic paint will stain, so please dress in old clothes.

Program offered online via Zoom.
 Registration required and begins one week prior to pickup date. Supplies will be provided and must be picked up prior to the program to fully participate.
